E. H. Chapman, in putting down the fifth well for the Ontario & California Oil Company, had the misfortune to lose his bit at a depth of over 300 feet in well. The Supreme Tent, Independent Order of Foresters, has issued a small book entitled Canada's Premier and Mayors. G. W. Sulman, Chatham's popular Mayor, is included in the list. The book contains a large sized photograph of Mr. Sulman with a short sketch of his life. It is accompanied by an article on the advantages of Chatham as a location for manufacturers.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

Now is the period when shops are filled with holiday buyers. The hard-worked clerks, and especially the girls, have many weary hours to stand, many miles to walk every day in attending to the wants of the holiday customers.

They are paid for it! So they are, but a little consideration now and then would make it so much easier for them. Do not give the clerks unnecessary work. Let them not find the festive season one of gloom and hard work. Chatham-shoppers are usually well served and they should appreciate the service by a little thoughtfulness.

Shop early. It is more satisfactory to both buyer and seller.

It gives the buyer better choice and more time, and it gives the clerk a chance to give equal attention to others.

A little consideration will make many people feel happier.

NOTICE

A Standard Scale is an absolute necessity. In combination with a truck it is indispensable. We offer for sale the sole selling right in the Townships of Tilbury and Romney of the Truck Scale—manufactured by "The Patent Development and Manufacturing Co. of Pembroke, Ont."

D. McLachlan's thoroughbred stallion, High Noon, has put two in the list this year, Jennie Mac, 223 1-2, and Nitchee, 224 1-4. The latter got her mark on a third of a mile track, so that the performance under the circumstances is a remarkable one.

A further fact worthy of mention is that both of these daughters of High Noon won the races in which they got their marks in straight heats and had their fields entirely at their mercy.
