CHIEF JUSTICE KILLAM.

To Be Appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Ottawa, July 24.—Mr. A. B. Aylesworth being averse to accepting a judgeship, it is understood that Chief Justice A. C. Killam of Manitoba will be appointed to succeed the late Justice Armour on the Supreme Court Bench. The west has been pressing for representation in the Supreme Court for some time past, and apparently the movement is about to meet with success. The judiciary of the west could not have a better representative than Chief Justice Killam. He is a wise, upright and clever Judge, and his urban and courteous manners render him extremely popular with the Bar and also with the general public.

PITCHED INTO A SWAMP.

Wreck of a G.T.R. Train Between Holstein and Varney.

Moore Forest, July 24.—Yesterday the mixed train on the G. T. R., going to Durham yesterday, met with disaster. When about half-way between Holstein and Varney, eight of the cars jumped the track, and were pitched in confusion into the adjacent swamp, some of the trucks being buried out of sight. The cars, with their contents, were badly smashed. The engine and two cars kept the track. The occupants of the passenger coach received a severe shaking up. A commercial traveller was pitched over three or four cars, alighting in such a way as to smash his back badly.

DEFENDS CHAMBERLAIN.

BALFOUR HAS AN OPEN MIND ON FISCAL POLICY.

Duke of Devonshire Declares Chamberlain's Impeachment of Fiscal Policy Well-founded and Advocates Changes.

London, July 24.—The educational campaign on the tariff question, which Colonial Secretary Chamberlain has vigorously launched by means of leaflets and circulars issued under his supervision, though not bearing his name, came in for serious criticism in the House of Lords.

Earl Spencer, the Liberal leader in that House, complained that Mr. Chamberlain was practically violating the Government agreement, namely, that the fiscal discussion should be postponed until October. He said the distribution of such literature looked on its face as though the Government had taken up Mr. Chamberlain's views. Earl Spencer added that if Mr. Chamberlain remained in the Cabinet it would be almost impossible to disassociate his views from the policy of the Government as a whole.

The Duke of Devonshire, Lord President of the Council and Conservative leader in the House, retorted that while he gathered from the remarks that the Government's attitude towards Chamberlain to resign, he feared this was a rather illogical procedure, since, though the Government had by no means yet adopted the views of the Colonial Secretary, the Government's investigation, so far as it had proceeded, had convinced the Premier and his colleagues that Mr. Chamberlain's impeachment of the fiscal policy was well founded, and that changes ought to be effected.

When the House of Commons was in committee on the Foreign Office vote, Sir Charles Dilke (Advanced Radical) assailed the foreign policy of the Government, which, he said, was strangely inconsistent. He compared the recent visit of King Edward to France and President Loubet's return visit to England with the Government's attitude towards Germany, and accused the Government of cringing to Germany in the Venezuelan matter and "allowing themselves to be hoodwinked." But, Sir Charles added, when there was a popular cry against Germany the Government had "hatched up the Canadian tariff grievance, and lately the Ministers had used language of absolute ferocity against Germany."

The Under Foreign Secretary, Lord Cranborne, replying, said the German Emperor had nothing whatever to do, directly or indirectly, with the communications in regard to the co-operation of Great Britain and Germany in the Venezuelan affair. He vindicated the policy of the Government in this matter, and said Great Britain was on friendly terms with all the powers. Continuing, the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs denied that Great Britain was getting the worst of it in Manchuria, where, he said, Great Britain recognized the open-door policy. Referring to the Canadian tariff question, Lord Cranborne said they must put their own colonies first, and an end must be put at once to the disabilities under which they suffered.

Addressing the Primrose League at a dinner held at the Hotel Cecil, Premier Balfour warmly defended Colonial Secretary Chamberlain against unreasonable attacks because he had given expression to the views of the colonies on the fiscal questions.

Mr. Balfour reiterated his previous statement that the Government approached the question with an open mind, and said it was folly to expect the Ministry on a moment's notice to produce a formulated scheme on such a great subject.

"OUR ALLY JAPAN UNEASY."

Significant Words of British Under Foreign Secretary.

London, July 24.—The Government's foreign policy was criticized in the Commons. Joseph Walton, a Liberal, who strongly favors an extension of British trade by means of colonial development, accused the Government of a succession of humiliating surrenders in China. He said the time had arrived for facing the situation in Manchuria and New Chwang.

The Under Foreign Secretary, Lord Cranborne, in reply, said that British trade in China was still increasing at a satisfactory rate, and he was confident of securing a full share of railway and other valuable concessions. The Government, he said, was fully aware of the situation in Manchuria. The great difficulty up to the present time in negotiating with Russia was that Great Britain had never yet been able to ascertain exactly what the Russian Government wanted, and the fact remained that Manchuria was still occupied. Russia's failure to fulfil her undertaking, he said, was satisfactory neither to Great Britain, Japan nor the United States.

"Our ally, Japan," he said, "is becoming uneasy at the prolongation of the occupation of Manchuria, and we are equally anxious for some kind of a settlement. There are certain elements out of which an agreement ought to be possible, and if Russia is prepared to give due weight to our treaty rights and commercial interests she will not find us irreconcilable to the compromise."

A FIGHTING PARSON.

Kills One Man and Fatally Wounds Another.

Middleburg, Ky., July 23.—Robert Lee, a minister at Linnie, became involved in a quarrel with Ellis Woods and the latter's son, and shooting followed, in which the preacher killed Woods and fatally wounded his son. The "fighting parson" was then arrested and taken to the jail at Liberty, where he peacefully returned thanks at the table with the other prisoners.

CANADIANS AT BISLEY.

Presented With Souvenir From British Palma Team.

Bisley Camp, July 23.—This is one of the most unpleasant days of the meet. The morning opened dull and chilly, with a varying wind blowing across the ranges. Later a drizzling rain set in, and most of the competitors are prepared to make mediocre scores.

About all of the Canadian team are shooting in the St. George's match, which is open only to volunteers and retired volunteers. The first prize is a challenge vase and £30. Altogether £950 are given in prizes in this competition. The distances are 500 and 600 yards, and the number of shots is seven at each range. The Canadians scored as follows at the 500 yards range:—Capt. J. M. Jones, 82nd Regt., 34; Sergt. Russell, G. G. F. G., 33; Major Spearing, 53rd Regt., 33; Capt. Stuart, 6th D. O. C., 33; Capt. Elliott, 12th Regt., 32; Pte. McGregor, G. G. F. G., 32; Pte. Peddie, 6th Royal Scots, 32; Pte. Smith, 31st Regt., 32; Sergt. White, 6th Regt., 32; Sergt. Baylis, 10th R. G., 32; Capt. King, 40th Regt., 31; Capt. Crowe, 30th Regt., 31; Sergt. Drysdale, 1st P. W. F., 31; Sergt. Harris, 13th Regt., 31; Staff-Sergt. Hayhurst, 13th Regt., 31; Tpr. McNaughton, 6th Hussars, 31; Staff-Sergt. Simpson, 10th R. G., 31; Pte. O'Brien, 30th Regt., 30; Staff-Sergt. Skeddon, 13th Regt., 30; Pte. Smith, B. R., 30; Sergt. W. A. Annand, 29; Lieut. Vroom, 69th Regt., 29; Capt. Jones, 82nd Regt., 29; Capt. Elliott, 12th Regt., 29; Staff-Sergt. Skeddon, 13th Regt., 29; Lieut. Vroom, 69th Regt., 29.

The first stage of the King's Prize has been finished. Lieut. Vroom stands fourth, Major Spearing eleventh, Crofton (an independent shot from Calgary) scored 96. Agent-General Howard of Nova Scotia totalled 98. There are in this stage of the match 86 ninety-fours.

Up to date the members of the Canadian team have won £150 in prizes. They have divided about forty "lump" prizes.

McGregor shot exceedingly well in the Duke of Cambridge match this morning. The range was 900 yards, and the number of shots ten. The first prize is £20.

In spite of the drizzling rain, the reception this afternoon was a great success. The feature was the presentation to the Canadians of a splendid trophy by Major Fremantle, on behalf of the British Palma Trophy team of last year. In a clever speech Major Fremantle said that the British team desired to show in some tangible manner their appreciation of the generous hospitality extended them by the Dominion Rifle Association at the Palma Trophy match in Ottawa last year. The souvenir is a magnificent silver cup, with an equestrian figure of Lord Roberts on the top, and portraits of Generals Buller, Baden-Powell, Kitchener and White on the sides. The inscription states the reasons for the presentation.

JOHN HAYMAN KILLED.

London Contractor Falls From a Building.

London, Ont., July 24.—John Hayman, jun., contractor, of Dundas street, fell from a building on Clarence street about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and died from the injuries he received at 7 o'clock at Victoria Hospital. Hayman was one of the firm of John Hayman & Son, contractors, who were building a three-story warehouse on Clarence street, near York street. Hayman was superintending work on the third story, when he took a mis-step while walking over an opening, and fell through a chute used for hoisting bricks. His fall was interrupted at the second story by a couple of planks, from which he bounded to the ground. The base of his skull was fractured, and he sustained internal injuries. He did not regain consciousness after the fall. Mr. Hayman is survived by his wife, one child, his father and several brothers. He was regarded as a very genial and successful business man.

GREENWAY MAY RETIRE.

The Manitoba Veteran Weary of Politics.

Winnipeg, July 24.—The report that ex-Premier Greenway will retire from the Liberal leadership, and also resign his seat in Mountain, is premature, but quite among the probabilities, as Mr. Greenway has frequently expressed a desire to leave the political arena permanently. It was only at the urgent request of Manitoba Liberals that he again accepted the leadership last year. Increasing years and ill-health render it impossible for him to continue in active leadership much longer. Mr. Greenway cannot resign his seat until the first sitting of the new House, which will probably not be held until February. Should he retire it will be with the deepest regret of all true western Liberals. A tribute to his personal popularity is the fact that at the Crystal City poll, Mr. Greenway's home, in Monday's elections, he was given a majority of 166 out of a total poll of 256.

The Liberals have practically decided to allow the postponed elections to go by default. Conceding Kildonan, where the result is a tie, to the Conservatives, they will have 33 seats in the new House.

RUSSIA'S NEW LOAN.

French Capitalists to Provide the Sum of $26,000,000.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—It is said that Russia has arranged with French capitalists for a loan of $26,000,000.

REPAIRING DONE AT STORE.

FATHER'S DYING GIFT.

Subject of Litigation in Dorchester Family.

Toronto, July 24.—The administrators of the estate of the late William Charlton of Dorchester Township, who died in January last, have failed in their effort to nullify a gift made by the deceased just before his death. Mr. Charlton was ninety-nine years of age, and when he lay on his death bed he pressed into the hand of his daughter a bundle of checks, notes and money, to the value of $3,000. The two sons, William H. and Miles Charlton, who are managing the estate, sued for the return of this money, but Mr. Justice Ferguson, who delivered judgment this morning, finds that the gift was proper and dismissed the appeal.
