(1 p.m. Sharp)

All but 4 are my own breeding.

46 Females

Daughters and 40 daughters of Maid of Kent.

My herd sire, SIR SADIE CORNUPOA CLOTHIE—born Jan. 18, 1909, perfectly quiet and sure, and 16 of his daughters and 5 sons in sale. All good type and from a sire proven in producing females.

Nearly all young stuff, whose ancestors have records behind them.

6 Males

5 Young Bulls

fit for service.

Also a choice lot from Sir Shade and Regis and Brookbank Butter Baron—a proven sire with champion daughters. For 25 years in the breeding business, we have used the best of sires. The dams are long-distance milkers—the kind every dairyman demands.

As my farm is rented, every animal will go under the hammer. Look up your needs in my catalogue. It gives you full particulars.
