A NAMELESS HERO
THOUGHT OF OTHERS

Pte. J. F. Cadenehead, of the Seaforth Highlanders, Vancouver in a letter from France says: "It is so easy to give bare facts and figures—so easy to read these facts, but so difficult to bring home or to realize to the full what these two battlefields were like. Ypres was a veritable inferno, but nothing could stop the firm determination of these men to crush and scatter the enemy. The two Canadian battalions were mere handfuls compared with the Germans. Onward they marched, dead or wounded before, they reached the wood; cries for the stretcher bearers were heard, the wounded helping the wounded and dying. To those who came through, the succeeding days will never be effaced. "At Festubert, although on a smaller scale, the deeds of valor were no less heroic. One is almost afraid to dwell too much on the deeds of self-sacrifice lest unconsciously you descend into bathos. But let me give one instance, and only one. One young lad was badly wounded; two of his comrades went to bind his wounds. But he knew he was hit in a vital part and that it was only a question of time. He pleaded with them not to waste time, but to help the wounded likely to recover. And his last request was to distribute any parcel that came for him among the boys. Tales like these, and they are many, thrill you with pride and you distinguish the difference between a nameless hero and others. For him there is no Victoria Cross; no Distinguished Conduct Medal, perhaps not even the simple wooden cross to mark his last resting place. But these are mundane things. This nameless hero is beyond all earthly praise and earthly honors. "The Canadian Scottish know little or nothing of what a winter in the trenches will be like. But they will endure it to the end. They have seen too much of the relentless and barbarous cruelty to waver. There is only one end—Germany must be brought lower than her knees. The first moral principle is the alienable in distinction between right and wrong. It must never be young lad was badly wounded; two of his comrades went to bind his wounds. But he knew he was hit in a vital part and that it was only a

Conscription is Only Way to Win Says British M. P.

London, August 18.—Col. Arthur Lee, M.P., for the Fareham division of Hants, who is home on a short leave, told his constituents at a meeting yesterday that nothing less than compulsory service would solve the difficulties which Great Britain is facing. This conviction he said had been burned in by his experiences at the front and was shared by nearly all who had been in contact with the realities of war. "We need compulsory national service," he continued, "because nothing can solve our difficulties with regard to men, money, munitions, etc. We need it to hear our soldiers serving abroad. The present freedom to shirk and stay at home while others give their lives to defend us, and to turn a deaf ear to the urgent call of one's country is not what we understand by British freedom."

Soldiers Get Pocket Money in Prison

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—The Canadian prisoners of war in Germany are to receive a weekly spending money. Negotiations between the British and German Governments resulted in an arrangement by which the British Government will forward seven shillings a week (approximately $1.78) to each of its soldiers now prisoners of war in Germany. The money will be sent to American Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, who will see that the money reaches the British and Canadian prisoners, while sent with that for the other British soldiers in Germany, will be provided by the Canadian Government.

VILNA BOMBARDED

Petrograd, Aug. 18.—German aeroplanes are persistently bombarding the city of Vilna, about 50 miles east of Kovno. The possibility of the capture of Vilna by the Germans is foreseen in Petrograd, and operations preliminary to the evacuation are in progress. The governor-general of Vilna has ordered the removal of the equipments of factories, and of banks, together with supplies of metals, including church bells, leather and everything else which might be useful to the invaders. Horses and live stock are being taken away. Preparations for the evacuation of Bialystok are in progress. The town is in darkness at night on account of attacks by German aircraft.
