conounced the Best and Most Enjoyable of Any Yet Given in Dawson.

Ry reason of the Nugget having or aturday gone to press at 1 o'clock s order to afford the staff of the mper a half holiday, it was, imposble to make much mention of the sports and general celebration of the anniversary of the United States which at that hour were just beginning to get in full swing and which vere being reeled off with so much elat and pleasure. Uncle Sam's domain is becoming quite a prosperous munity nowadays and the youngster, himself is something of a man bough but 127 years old. Ever since the foundation of Dawson with the aception of the year '97 the resients of the great republic that joins anada on the south now residing in he Klondike have assembled in the ity and fittingly observed the day which to them is more sacred than all other holidays, but it has remainof for the present year to mark the ost successful of all the celebraions that have ever been held. For he first time the affair extended over wo days, and the innovation proved happy idea. In other ways, too, observing of the day was differt from previous years. Bishop Rowe Delivers Eloquent Discourse at Both Matins and Evenson &.

Both the services at St. Paul's vesterday were very well, attended, many who had not been to church in year or more coming to listen to the eloquence of Bishop Rowe who delivered the discourse on both occasions. Had the church but possessed a surpliced choir the processional and ecessional would have reminded one very much of the days long ago beore so many wandered to the far north in search of the fortune so hard 7. 7 to grasp. In addition to the hishop, assistance was rendered at the services by the rector; Rev. Mr. War-ren, who officiated as the deacon, and Mr. George Chilson, who will take orders this winter, as subdeacon. The celebration of the holy eucharist occurred at matins following the sermon, the bishop officiating The rector conducted the prayers both at matins and evensong. The discourses of the bishop were listened to with the greatest attention. His roice is at times as tender as a child's, has flow of language perfect and his enunciation distinct, which ombined with an earnestness that is mmistakable and great personal magetism makes him at the same time best beloved bishop in the entire Am-Meets With Mishap on Hunker erican house of bishops. He speaks without notes and wholly extempor aneously and after reading the text story of Him crucified.
