

The Enterprise Perfect High Oven RANGE

One of the most Beautiful, as well as the most "Common Sense" STEEL RANGES ever devised. Two doors instead of one, thus doubling the Baking Capacity, with the same amount of fuel as used in the ordinary Range. Each door is fitted with a THERMOMETER. The Back is of White Porcelain Enamel. This finish can be kept perfectly clean, and is the most Sanitary Finish that can be produced. See this New Up-to-date RANGE.

OBITUARY

J. Stanley Eaton

The death of Mr. J. Stanley Eaton took place at his residence Upper Canard on Thursday morning after an illness of two weeks. He was in his 81st year. The funeral service will be held on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Eaton was a man well known and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends.

Rufus Kitchener Porter
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Porter will deeply sympathize with them in the death of their infant son, Rufus Kitchener who passed away to his happy home Friday morning at 8 o'clock, age three months, 14 days.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, Rev. R. B. Layton officiating. A bud plucked from earth to bloom in Heaven.—Yarmouth papers copy.

Rev. M. E. Fletcher

The death of Rev. M. E. Fletcher ends a life of great usefulness while he was yet in his prime. Since the war began, one of the most earnest members of recruiting committees was Mr. Fletcher, who gave two sons to the service and was ready to go himself if he had been accepted. He was ever ready to go on the recruiting platform, in the city or anywhere in the Province, and his earnest and striking appeals always made a deep impression. A man easy of approach, and ready to make himself one of any company in the advocacy of a good cause, he made friends wherever he went. The news of his death will be a severe blow to his sons, but who can measure the sorrow of his wife who has lost her husband and whose only children are the two lads at the front? Mr. Fletcher saw service as a missionary in Burma, and has been pastor of churches in several parts of New Brunswick. His fine business ability marked him out for the post of financial agent for the Baptist denomination, which he has ably filled for some years. The citizens of St. John, regardless of creed, pay tribute to the memory, and join in profound sympathy for the bereaved family.—St. John Times.

WEDDING BELLS

Cleveland-Lockhart

An interesting event took place at Halifax on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd when Miss Lora Evelyn Lockhart, daughter of Mrs. Geo. Lockhart of Kentville, was united in marriage to Mr. Grover Cleveland of the Dominion Atlantic Railway.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hamilton Wigle at the home of Mrs. Jas. Leitch, sister of the bride, in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride wore a travelling suit of brown and carried a bouquet of roses and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland will reside in Kentville. The best wishes of many go with the young couple.
