ALL-... DOM.

Mr. ... speaking ... in connection ... jubilee of ... Harrington, ... that Canada ... full share in ... that had ... one as well in ... her sister ... 200,000 ... to-day than the ... present.

The magnitude ... of the Canadians ... line, said Mr. ... had placed Canada among the leaders of the nations of the earth, but people should not feel because of this she has done her share. Figures corrected up to February 1 showed that Canada had sent overseas 288,400 men, with a population of eight millions. Australia had sent 300,000 men overseas with a population of 5,000,000. New Zealand had sent 65,000 men to the front, with a population of 1,100,000. South Africa had contributed 60,000 to the war, with a European population of 1,275,000 and Newfoundland had sent 31,000 men out of a total of 250,000. Canada, the largest and most thickly populated, has sent only a little more than three and a half per cent of her population, while Australia had sent six per cent, New Zealand six per cent, South Africa five per cent and Newfoundland twelve per cent. Great Britain, continued Mr. Rowell, has given more than three men to every one of Canada and France more than four men.

A TRUE INDICTMENT

Hall Caine describes the desolation of war in graphic and moving terms. He shows how laboriously the best minds erected the fairest expressions of benign civilization in Europe and how in a moment of time, through hellish passions, this has all been destroyed, so that the Europe known to this generation can never return. The famous novelist points out, about all, the incalculable moral loss involved in the war—the lowering of worthy ideals, the bringing in of brute force, the reerection of naked savagery. It has been the habit of the military classes to insist upon the "glory" of war; upon exalting effect.

In truth, nothing but moral loss has attended every war in history. It ruins and blights; it falls upon humanity like a curse; it deluges the world in blood and tears. It is the "sum of all the villainies."

This is the amazing thing—that a war of this magnitude could occur in an age so refined and scientific, when the greatest triumph were useful discoveries to prolong life, to bring happiness to the greatest number. And the loss to faith, as Hall Caine points out. Has Christian teaching been a mockery? Chiefly—this war has shown that the civilization we boasted of is only a veneer; that primordial passions are let loose; and that man is essentially a savage.

One of the ablest and most influential labor leaders in the United States is Mr. Samuel Gompers, who from the entry of the United States into the war has given notable proof of his patriotism. Shortly after his country entered the war, he in a public address, urged employers and employees alike to take no advantage of the country's necessity by changing existing standard of labor conditions.

HEN AND ONE DOZEN EGGS SOLD FOR $2,002.91

Mrs. Mary Satko, of Middletown, Ohio, steps to the front as breeder and owner of the most valuable hen yet produced in this country, says the Rural New Yorker. This hen and one dozen of her eggs sold for $2,002.91. No, you do not want any eggs of this wonderful new breed. The hen is a common bird, and would no doubt be classed as a "scrub" by most fanciers. It seems that Middletown started in to raise a great sum of money for the Red Cross, and everyone helped. Mrs. Satko, a poor Hungarian woman, wanted to help, but had nothing but her hen to offer. So she brought the hen and the eggs to the meeting. Happily there were men and women in charge of that fund who had the imagination to see at once that here was the incident of the widow's mite brought into the Red Cross work. This poor woman gave all she had.

"Of a truth I say unto you that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all."

The hen and her eggs might possibly have sold for $1.50 on the basis of their food value, but Middletown saw faith value of such an offering. So they put the hen up at auction and she brought $266. A wealthy man paid $100.00 for the eggs. Then he gave them back and they were put up at auction one at a time. The first egg brought $400 and the entire 12 brought $1,734.91, all of which, of course went to the Red Cross. Thus this common citizen in feathers becomes the highest priced hen in the country. We would not back her in an egg-laying contest but as an advance agent for a worthy enterprise she goes to the top roost. And Mrs. Mary Satko, through her humble gift has become, in proportion to her means, the largest subscriber to the Red Cross. And why should not Middletown change its nameto Toptown?

THE ENEMY SURPRISE ATTACKS REPELLED

Fighting in the East

PARIS, Aug. 28—The war office communication issued last night says:—

"The artillery fighting has been rather violent on the left bank of the Meuse, especially in the region to the north of Hill 344. The enemy made no attempt against our new position during the day.

"In Lorraine, in the direction of Zelcheprey, and in Alsace, at Hartmans Weilerkopf, we have repulsed ten surprise attacks and have made a number of prisoners.

"Belgian communication:— During the days of Aug. 26 and 27, German artillery prevailed along the Belgian front. Avecapelle and Adinkirke were bombarded by long range guns.

"Army of the East:— Cannonading and patrol encounters have taken place to the north of Monastir. The artillery activity was moderate on the rest of the front. Our aviators have bombarded Lesnica between Lakes Malik and Orchrida."

Canadians Driving Back Vast Hords of Germans at Lens

The last week has seen very severe fighting around Lens where the Canadians are heroically fighting for every foot of ground.

Through the cities of St. Laurent, St. Theodore and St. Emille to the north and west of Lens they have fought past high slag and pit heads, along railway embankments and down sunken roads, until they have broken a way through these rightful defences to the western streets of the inner city. Every day, and sometimes many times a day, they have been counter attacked by swarms of Germans coming up out of their tunnels, and between these attacks they have been under a terrific gunfire from a wide semicircle of heavy batteries. Six German divisions have attacked them in turn and been shattered against them. These divisions are the Seventh and an Eighth, the Fourth Division of the Eleventh Reserve, the 220th and the First Reserve Division. In addition to these six divisions, some portions at any rate of the 185th Division and of the 36th Reserve Division, have been engaged.

The total German strength used at Lens will exceed fifty battalions, and the German losses may perhaps be estimated at between 12,000 and 15,000. The Canadians themselves have been hard pressed at times, but have endured the exhaustion of the great struggle with amazing strength of spirit, grimly and fiercely resolved to hold their gains unless overwhelmed by numbers of their advanced positions, as it has sometimes happened to them.

Has Not Had An Hour's Sickness Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. MARRIOTT 78 Lees Ave., Ottawa, Ont., August 9th, 1915.

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives', I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 3 1/2 years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives', and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain."

WALTER J. MARRIOTT. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
