

CITY AND COUNTRY

(From Thursday's Morning Leader.)

Last evening the report was current that a driver and team hauling in gravel to the city from Pilot Butte were miserably holed and thought that in the slight blizzard blowing he might have lost his way.

Mr. Edward McDonald and Miss Louisa M. Omerod, both of Regina, were united in marriage on Tuesday evening by Rev. E. A. Henry, the ceremony being performed at the manse.

A surprise party waited on Miss Emily K. Crosby at the home of Mrs. A. D. Wright on Wednesday afternoon composed of sixteen of her late colleagues from the Law Titles office, when she was presented with a gold watch and chain and an illuminated address bearing the names of thirty-five subscribers. Miss Crosby has severed her connection with the Government office after a service of nearly three years as stenographer, and has taken a position with Messrs. Balfour & Broadfoot.

From Friday Morning's Leader.

Fred Ansley, representing the Kinleith Paper Mills Co., of St. Catharines, Ont., and W. J. Gage & Co., of Toronto, is in the city on business for these firms. The main object of Mr. Ansley's trip West at the present time was to open a branch warehouse in Winnipeg, it having been decided, in view of the continued great expansion of Western business, to carry a stock there for the convenience of these firms' customers. Mr. Austin Barkwell will manage the Winnipeg branch, and will from time to time visit all important Western points. The wholesale book and stationery firm of W. J. Gage & Co. is well known throughout the West, and the Kinleith mills are among the largest, most modern and best equipped in Canada.

Mr. Parsons, the traveling secretary of the Y.M.C.A., arrived in the city from the East yesterday afternoon. Mr. Parsons, who is on his way West, reports the fuel famine very serious in Manitoba, Brandon being especially badly off in that respect, both the papers in that town being practically put out of business on Wednesday, the Sun only being able to bring out a dodger-size sheet printed on a hand press.

Before W. A. Young, who has been in charge of the Merchants Bank at Whitecourt, Sask., as manager, left to take charge of his new duties at Souris, Man., a number of principal business men and citizens gathered in the office of Mayor Park and presented him with a nicely worded address and a well-filled purse of gold.—Free Press.

The Grain Growers' Association held a meeting Wednesday at Grand Coulee in Redick's Hall, Messrs. Hopkins and Green, of Moose Jaw, were present and delivered very able addresses, both dealing effectively with the special troubles which at present confront the farmers of the country.

Another newspaper has been added to the ranks of Saskatchewan journalism. The new venture is The Monitor, published by E. W. Schell at Tisdale, Sask. The initial number is neatly printed and enjoys an advanced list of patrons which would indicate substantial financial support.

Walter Simpson, one of Regina's old-time farmers, who has always taken an intelligent and active interest in all matters pertaining to agriculture, is seriously ill with pneumonia. He is receiving every possible attention, but is reported to be very low.

From Saturday Morning's Leader.

The Lumsden Dramatic Club was organized last week and will put on a play in the local opera house on Feb. 6, entitled "Borderland," the proceeds of which will go to the Lumsden relief committee.

For the convenience of reserved seat ticket holders at the hockey matches, the rink management has completed arrangements for the comfortable seating of over three hundred spectators in the centre of the rink gallery.

The gent from Hanley that went down to Regina last week and told the city folk that food and coal were scarce at Hanley must have been off his trolley. It is suggested that the folks up in that town should censor the gent and turn him loose in some large place with a high board fence and charge people for looking at the Greatest ever.—Lumsden News-Record.

His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, and Madams Forget left for Calgary yesterday by the delayed No. 1 of the previous evening. The Lieutenant Governor goes to attend the meeting to be held in Calgary today of the members of the Rhodes Scholarship Committee of Alberta and Saskatchewan, of which he is chairman. At this important meeting the representative of the two Provinces will go to Oxford University for 1907 will be chosen. Mr. D. P. McColl, Deputy Commissioner of Education, and secretary of the committee, left by the same train. The other members of the committee are the Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, the Chief Justice of the North-West Supreme Court, and the Deputy Commissioner of Education for Alberta.

(From Tuesday's Morning Leader.) The remains of the late Miss Stubbings, who died in Winnipeg after an operation, arrived in the city Sunday and will be interred in the cemetery here, the funeral taking place this morning from St. Mary's Church at 11 o'clock.

The Peart Bros. Co., Limited, will open for business today in the old stand of the Smith & Ferguson Co., South Railway street. Messrs. Peart, it will be remembered, recently bought out the hardware business of Smith & Ferguson, and the stock taking having now been completed, the business reopens under the auspices of the new firm, which is practically an amalgamation of the Smith & Ferguson and Western Hardware businesses. The premises at present occupied by the Western Hardware Co. in the Bonaventure Block will be vacated at an early date, being, however, kept open until such time as the large stock there has been removed to the new and more centrally located premises.

The offices of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, have been moved from the building on Hamilton street and are now located in the new portion of the Trading Co.'s block, which has been set aside for Government offices.

The death is announced in the Ottawa papers of Mrs. A. A. Cameron, wife of Rev. Dr. A. A. Cameron, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Ottawa, and sister of John Fisher, of this city, at the age of 57 years.

L. L. Butler, until recently manager for the J. L. Case Co. here, has decided to go into the real estate business at Victoria, with Messrs. Gray & Hamilton. Mr. Butler has been succeeded by N. J. Rutledge.

The long looked forward to dance given by the Barracks, R.N., at W.M.P., at the barracks, took place last evening. Despite the cold, large numbers went out from the city and were rewarded by a most enjoyable evening.

A meeting of all Hamilton Old Boys will be held in the office of the People's Realty Co., rooms 11-12, Darke Block, next Wednesday night, Jan. 30, for the purpose of organizing. All ex-residents of Hamilton are requested to be present. As the election of officers will take place and social affairs in general discussed.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette left last evening for her former home in Dundalk, Ont., where she has been summoned by messages announcing the serious illness of her father. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Hanbury, who has been spending the winter in Regina.

HIGH SCHOOL CORPS

NOW IN TRAINING

Cadets to Wear Khaki Uniforms—Rifles on Their Way—Lieut. Gov. Offers Medal.

A meeting of the High School Cadet Corps was held yesterday afternoon. It was decided to hold a concert on or about March 8th, for the purpose of raising funds for Cadet Corp uniforms. A khaki duck was chosen as the material for the suits. The rifles for the company were shipped from Winnipeg on the 25th inst., and will soon be in the hands of the boys.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan has shown his interest in the company by offering a medal to the best marksmen. The following officers were elected: Captain, Stanley Milne. First Lieut., Harold Brown. Second Lieut., Mervyn Tripp. Sergeants, W. Latta and F. Mollard. Corporals, A. Gillespie and W. Tripp. The boys are now in training under instructor C. K. Finlay.

INDIAN SCHOOLS ARRANGED.

Former Governor Alleges That Great Cruelty is Practiced.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 29.—Former Governor McConnell, of Idaho, and a former Indian Commissioner, in an interview charges gross mismanagement of the Indian schools, and arraigns the system by which young Indian girls are taken from their parents and sent to the Indian schools. He alleges that the teachers in the schools practice great cruelty upon their charges, and that the girl pupils are allowed to be debauched. The blame for these conditions he places upon Secretary Hitchcock, whom, he says, he acquainted with these conditions during his tenure of office, but who pigeon-holed his report. He further says that the officials of the Interior Department conceal the true state of affairs from them. The schools are badly overcrowded, he says, and the agents try to secure as large per capita appropriation as possible. He claims to have seen instances where Indian boys with running tubercular sores were compelled to sleep with healthy Indians.

107 YEARS OLD.

Aged Scotch Shepherd Who Can Walk Several Miles a Day.

GLASGOW, Jan. 29.—The claim of the oldest Scotchman alive, made on behalf of James Grievie, a humble resident of Argyleshire is not likely to be disputed. Born on Jan. 1, 1800, Grievie has spent his long life as a shepherd and crofter on the romantic shores of Loch Long. Grievie is of medium height, and spare and bony. He has the stoop of age, but he walks well, has a fairly good memory, and can walk half a dozen miles any day. He recollects hearing his grandfather describe Prince Charlie, and recalls the coming of the news of the battle of Waterloo. He was fourteen years of age when the battle was fought.

DRAMATIC SUICIDE.

Lover Hears Over 'Phone Sweetheart Shooting Herself.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—A cafe concert singer has committed suicide under singular circumstances. She loved a law student, who wished to break with her. The young man was in a night cafe at 3 o'clock in the morning, when he was called to the telephone. He heard the voice of the cafe concert singer, who said: "I am going to kill myself, dear Hans, and I have come to say farewell." A dramatic conversation followed. The student begged the young woman not to take her life, and promised to remain her faithful friend. But she simply repeated: "Farewell! You will never see me again," and a shot rang out.

The student then rushed to the nearest police station and drove to the young woman's lodgings with a policeman. He was too late. She lay insensible on a long chair. She had lodged a bullet in her head.
