tower the well-wooded, snow-capped Carpathians. In this town before the war citizens of many nationalities were busily engaged in an extensive lumber trade and in handling the enormous output of salt (a state monopoly), taken from the mines of three villages contiguous to the county capital. The annual fair which were held here were an important feature of the industrial life of this part of Hungary, and presented a most picturesque scene to the traveler. A babel of tongues and a kaleidoscope of color resulted from the mingling of Ruthenians, Roumanians, Magyars, Gipsies, Slovaks and Armenians, each group dressed in the multitudinous costumes peculiar to their own nationality.

The salt mines of the Marmaros-Sziget district have been worked for centuries and many Americans who have toured this part of Hungary have visited the deep galleries whose rock-crystal walls glitter as if studded with countless iridescent jewels as they reflect the rays of the electric lights. One of the most interesting mines is that of Ronaszek, which contains a great subterranean salt lake having a depth of nearly 300 feet.

"Hunting for bear and lynx on the wooded slo. of the Carpathians in the vicinity of Marmaros-Sziget is a favorite pastime of the Hungarians. The accommodations for sportsmen are not as satisfactory here as in the high Tatra mountains, however."

Ireland's Golden Age.

There need be no "theory" as to the early culture of Ireland. It is a fact, for example, that the Abbey of Clonmacnoise, near Athlone, was once a centre of learning so renowned that scholars repaired thither from the ends of Europe, and the great Charlemagne sent it presents. And in the realm of art "The Book of Kells," a Latin copy of the Gospels, executed at that time, had no rival for delicacy of illumination.—London Standard.

ing the soldiers' families and of supervising the distribution of the fund.

Clearly, with the increasing size of our armies, and the alarmingly rapid growth of the cost of living, the fund must be increased. In 1917, Ontario will be asked for six million dollars, against five millions in 1916. The province is prosperous, and there is no good reason why this sum should not be guaranteed by the end of January. In that month, campaigns will be held in a large number of the towns and cities, and energetic work, coupled with generous loosening of the purse-strings, should ensure that by the end of the month the fund will see its way clear to fulfill its duty towards Ontario families until Dec. 31, 1917.

How to Cut Roses.

There is a right and a wrong way to cut roses. The choice of the latter may seriously injure the blossom producing properties of the plants. This applies particularly, of course, to rose plants chosen and grown especially for cut flower production. Such roses will be largely of the perpetual blooming sorts. When a rose is cut from such plants—tea roses or other perpetual bloomers—only two or three eyes of the current season's growth of that branch should be left on the plant. This should give the roses very long stems. Succeeding blossoms should be cut close to the ground. It will seem like destroying the bush to take so much off it, but if the object is the production of roses, the cutting away of the surplus wood will attain the desired end.

If the spring pruning has not been sufficiently severe the plant is likely to have long, naked stalks and short stems to the flowers. With this character of growth only one or two strong leaf buds should be left on the branch when the flower is cut, so as to stimulate as much growth as possible from the base of the plant. The greatest temptation to leave wood on where there are two or more buds on one branch, some being small when the terminal one is open. This temptation to follow a bad practice can be avoided by pinching off all side buds after a bud has formed on the end of a branch. This prevents the formation of two or more buds on one stalk. This summer pruning will encourage additional blooms on varieties which bloom more than once a year.

JABLONICA.

One of the Important Gateways of Carpathian Mountains.

Jablonica and the pass of the same name, which the Russians are said to have occupied, constitute one of the most important gateways through the high Carpathian mountains from Galicia and Bukowina into Hungary, says a war geography note of the U. S. National Geographic Society issued from its Washington headquarters.

"The Carpathians in this vicinity tower to a height of 7,500 feet, and slope gradually down to the southwest through the country of Marmaros. At a distance of forty-five miles from the crest the capital of the province, Marmaros-Sziget, is situated at a level of only 800 feet above the sea. Jablonica clings to the northeastern slope of the Carpathians, between the headwaters of the Fruth and the Golden Eistritza Rivers, and is as mail station on the seventy-two-mile railway line connecting Stanislaw, now in the hands of the Russians, with Korosmezo, just beyond the pass, to the southwest. Near Korosmezo are valuable petroleum springs.

"The important river Theiss, chief affluent of the Danube, and next to the latter the largest waterway in Hungary, has its source in Marmaros county. Situated on the Theiss and connected by rail with Korosmezo is the flourishing town of Marmaros-Sziget, with a population of 21,000. This will be the first important objective of the Russians after they cross the Carpathians by way of the Jablonica pass and begin their descent upon the plains of Hungary.

"Marmaros-Sziget is most pleasantly situated at the juncture of the Ira River with the Theiss. To the east to his trail day and night for many years attained their object. Dr. Sun at that time was secluded in a house surrounded by a vast garden, encircled by a high and almost unscalable wall, which was constantly under guard. He household was trustworthy to the last man.

Dr. Sen was alone in the garden. Somewhere along the wall a guard patrolled. At last the sentry passed near a spot where a lean yellow man crouched hidden and waiting.

Into the calm Japanese air shot a "smoke rig" of concentrated poison vapor. One after another the rings settled about the unsuspecting guard. He fell limp and unconscious to the grass. From behind Dr. Sun, too, the jets of poison came volleying. With out a cry the man of China's destiny collapsed, temporarily suffocated.

Over the walls appeared the ends of long ladders. Up swarmed lithe, active yellow men, dropping into the garden and rifling the unconscious leader's garments. A moment, and they swarmed up the trunks of trees growing beside the wall and dropped again to the outside.

Home Care of Milk.

No matter how well milk has been handled up to the time it is delivered to the consumer, it cannot be expected to keep well if it is carelessly treated thereafter. It should be covered, kept in a cool, clean place free from dirt, flies, etc. New milk should never be mixed with old unless it is to be used at once, as the bacteria in the old milk will of course be added also and the mixed milk will not keep as well as the fresh milk alone. Bacteria are thickest where there is dirt and decay, and milk should therefore be stored only in clean, sweet places. It is safer to keep it covered, to exclude not only dirt and bacteria, but also the flavors and odors which it so easily absorbs. If kept at a temperature of 50 degrees Fahrenheit or less, good milk should remain sweet for twelve hours at least, after it reaches the consumer, and ordinarily for twenty-four hours or more. Sometimes in very hot weather housekeepers complain that in spite of all precautions it sours quickly, even in the ice box. This is often due to the fact that the air of the ice box, although it seems cold in contrast with the heat outside, is really not cold enough to check the growth of the bacteria; if a thermometer placed inside registers more than 50 degrees Fahrenheit, the fault is almost surely in the temperature of the ice box and not in the milk.

To Every Woman Who is in Pain

MRS. WILLIAMS SAYS USE DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She Suffered for Two Years, but Three Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills Made Her a New Woman.

Adams, New York, N. Y., Feb. 8, (Special).—I can recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to every woman who suffers. So says Mrs. Williams, a well-known and highly-respected lady residing here. Mrs. Williams was a sufferer for two years till she used Dodd's Kidney Pills. She found in them quick relief and complete cure. That is why she is enthusiastic in her praise of them.

"My troubles started with a cold," Mrs. Williams stated, "I never seemed to get over the effects of it. I had cramps in my muscles and my joints were stiff. There were dark circles under my eyes, which were puffed and swollen. I had a bitter taste in my mouth, and I suffered from severe headaches.

"I felt heavy and sleepy after meals and had attacks of neuralgia. Heart fluttering and rheumatism were soon added to my troubles. I took just three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I cannot be too glad that I did so.

Every one of Mrs. Williams' symptoms was a symptom of kidney disease. That is why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

were suspended at the front doors and bore pictures of all sorts of animals, vegetables, birds, flowers, fishes and insects. It was customary to speak of an innkeeper, then, as John of the Bear, or Dick of the Swan, and, as they were readily understood, these names were soon converted into Bear, Hog, Hart, Bull, Fox, Wolf, Colt, Hare, Beaver, Lyon, Swan, Peacock, Heron, Dove, Partridge, Cock, Finch, Hawk, Crane and Drake, as well as Eurt, Chubb, Haddock, Herring, Pike, Perch and others. From vegetables, trees, fruits and flowers we have Bean, Broome, Claver, Birch, Ash, Hawthorne, Hazel Peach, Flower, Nettle, Vine, Plant, Buld, Branch and Roy, besides dozens more.

Some of these bore other devices, and from these we have such names as Belt, Hammer, Coat, Mantel, Jewel, Potts, Pipes and others. A great many nicknames remained fixed as family names, the most important being those which referred to the color of hair or complexion, and from these come such well-known names as Brown, Black Gray, White, Red (red), Blount (fair). Others were given for some personal attainment or characteristic, such as Armistead, Mitchell (great), Singer, Whistler, Eatwell, Swindell, Strong, Weak, Small, Osgood (well built), Longfellow, Crookshanks, Longman, Whitehead, Broadhead, Swift, Seber, Noble, Hatley, Doolittle, Goodman, Darlings, Long, Short, Bachelor, Savage, Wise, Sweet, Moody and others.

To these might be added King, Queen, Pope, Bishop, Knight, Prince, Abbott, Squire, Earl, Duke, Baron, Lord, Prince and others, which were originally given to individuals because of their bearing the titles or because of services they may have rendered them. There are many more which do not come under any particular heading, but owe their origin to some event which the names appropriately indicate—Joy, Bliss, Morrow, Winter, March, May, Weeks and so on.—Exchange.

Irritable Nerves Restored and Health Regained in a Simple Way

The man or woman who is run-down, not feeling up to the mark, perhaps irritable, nervous or sleepless can well afford to learn about the wonderful results the newly discovered blood-food is giving to folks that use it.

There is wonderful power in this new blood-food, and every weak, pallid person can be quickly nourished back to health that uses it as directed. After each meal, with a sip or two of water, you simply take two little chocolate-coated tablets, sold in all drug stores under the name of "FERROZON." The effect is noticeable at once. You feel happier, brighter, more contented. That old-time feeling of weariness departs—you forget your "nerves" and no longer get irritable or cross over trifling annoyances.

There is a reason for this change and that reason consists of the fact that Ferrozon contains blood-making materials you can get in no other way. Ferrozon makes the blood tingle and sing with vitality. This ensures lots of nourishment and strength and being supplied to every part of the body.

No wonder the eyes brighten and the cheeks radiate color and happiness: With abundance of strength, a keen appetite, good digestion and plenty of sound sleep—all the result of Ferrozon—you quickly feel as if life held new charms and pleasures.

JADE TALISMAN BRINGS POWER.

Centuries Old Idol Means Much to the Chinese.

Sun Yat-Sen's Failure Blamed to It's Loss.

The death of Yuan Shi-Kai, president of China, is inseparably linked with the recovery of the long lost image of the Chinese Goddess of Mercy, Kwanyin, in the minds of many Chinese, who see in these events the strange workings of the mysterious power to be controlled by the idol. Strangely enough, the image was reported found on the very day that the president died.

The Goddess of Mercy was stolen from Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, the revolutionary leader, and the failure of the Sun China revolution was said to be due to this image.

The Kwanyin, for which a reward of $10,000 was offered, was carved from a solid block of rare apple green jade. It is centuries old. In its base, cunningly fashioned so as to defy detection, there was a tiny secret chamber, and in this chamber reposed the one symbol held in the greatest of veneration throughout the land of the Chinese.

What form that symbol takes is today a profound mystery. This much is known: It is the talisman possession of which rules the greatest of all Chinese secret societies. It is whispered that possession of the supreme symbol came to Dr. Sun during the period of his life when he was a fugitive from the wrath of the Manchus. There are those among the Siam-eyes dreamers of China's long land who say that possession of the symbol concealed in the base of the jade Kwanyin has been responsible for much of the uncanny power which Dr. Sun exercised over the people of China, and that it obtained sanctuary for him on countless occasions from those who sought his life for a heavy blood price. The talisman is called "The Horns of the Hare."

Time after time, through hired Japanese agents, for whom the talisman held little of awe, attempts were made to steal the Jade Kwanyin and its priceless contents.

It was in 1914, two years after Dr. Sun had abdicated in favor of Yuan Shi-Kai, that the men who had clung

THE ORIGIN OF OUR SURNAMEN

How Men in Long Ago Times Distinguished Men.

Trades, Places, Events, Personal Characteristics.

It cannot be admitted that considerable food for thoughtful reflection is offered in the study of the origination of names. It was all very well when the world was young; but, as a writer says, "As the population increased and communication became possible and easier the supply of single names was not equal to the demand, and people began to get individuals bearing the same name mixed. It was at this time that the surname was thought of and adopted, so that families might be distinguished one from the other."

Trades and callings are in this day represented in the names of Baker, Carver, Shoemaker, Tyler, Chandler, Mason, Cutler, Carter, Saddler, Slater, Butcher, Drayer, Thatcher, Fletcher, Hooper, Cheeseman, Turner, Joiner, Cooper, Gilder, Mercer, Skinner, Cooper, Sawyer, Tanner, Spicer, Cook, Tutor, Miner, Driver, Weaver Gardner, Archer, Merchant, Porter, Wainwright, Taylor, Shepherd, Glover and ever so many others.

Says Clifford Howard, who has devoted himself to this pleasant study: "Such names as Hall, Stair, Carrett, Kitchen and Chambers also record the occupations of our forefathers, who in these cases were engaged in the households of the nobility and had charge of such apartments as the names imply. Others held higher positions than we have the Butler, Proctor, Forballey, Fowler and Hayward, the keepers, the forest and the
