Blue Bird Tea Brings Happiness.
The first Mayflower seen by The Acadian this season was sent in this morning by Mrs. Rodney Chase, Kentville.

The members of the Sir Robert Borden Chapter, I.O.D.E., wish to express their thanks to those who took part in the musical comedy, "Coats and Petticoats".

At the meeting of the Sir Robert Borden Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Tuesday, a resolution was passed, that the provincial department of education to include the "King's English Drill" in the curriculum of the schools of Nova Scotia.

The street authorities are laying down a piece of plank sidewalk at the east end of the town beginning at the end of the pavement on the north side of Main street. This work has been petitioned for by residents of that section and will be a decided convenience.

Mr. J. Elliot Smith, manager for Messrs. Gerald DaCosta's Nova Scotia Fruit Department, received last week a cable as follows: "Finished clearing 'Cornish Pl.' Nonpareils, No. 1, 30s to 32s; No. 2, 25s to 27s; No. 3, 19s to 22s; Ben Davis, 32s to 34s; No. 1 Russets, 36s. Demand strong."

The presentation of Rafael Sabatini's famous story, "Captain Blood", at the Orpheum Theatre this week was greatly enjoyed by a large audience on both nights. Keen interest was sustained throughout the entire ten reels, and the scenes were extremely realistic, especially the final battle scene between the British and French ships. The next super special production at the Orpheum will be eagerly awaited.

The Women's Missionary Aid Society met in the vestry of the Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, with the ladies of the Avonport Missionary Aid Society as guests. Miss Wilson, returned missionary from Bolivia, S.A., gave a very interesting and informal talk on her work among the South American Indians. Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Gullison, Mrs. Patterson and Miss Wilson were made life members of the society. The Easter offering amounted to $105.25. After the meeting a delicious supper was served.

GIRL GUIDE NOTES

On Friday evening, April 3, the Girl Guides entertained their mothers and also the members of the Local Association at their regular meeting.

After roll call and inspection, the horse-shoe formation was taken up and fifteen recruits took their Guide promise and were welcomed into the sisterhood of the Guides.

A short sing-song was enjoyed and at the close refreshments were served by the Guides. The evening was brought to a close with the singing of our Guide Even-song and "Taps".

A. J. MASON SINGS FOR RADIO

(From Maritime Radio News)
Among those who participated in the concert broadcasted at CNRA on March 24th was Mr. A. J. Mason, a talented vocalist from Springhill, N.S.

Mr. Mason has a fine tenor voice, and his singing was greatly appreciated by radio fans.

He formerly lived at Hamilton, Ont. After studying music in Boston with A. J. Hubbard, Mr. Mason spent two seasons with the Selwyn producers of New York in their successful musical comedy, "Buddies".

Mr. Mason has been in the show business since 1906. In 1917 he launched out for himself at Wolfville, N.S. He has been very successful as a manager of picture houses and has a host of friends in Springhill, Parrsboro and other towns in the neighboring province. Mr. Mason has presented several amateur dramatic and musical productions. He has also done considerable fraternal and church work. Having a splendid voice and a genial disposition, he is in much demand at musical entertainments.

An interesting feature of the broadcast at CNRA in which Mr. Mason took part, was the fact that his parents were listening in at their home in Hamilton, Ont. They were naturally greatly delighted on hearing their son's voice.

Radio fans will be pleased to hear Mr. Mason on the air again.

The Tuxis Boys of the town of Bridgewater have offered their services to the Council for any work in which they can be used. Bridgewater has a tax rate of $3.25 on an assessment of $1,512,905.
