"Our fathers lived in a forest, Foolish people were they; They went down to the cornlar To teach the farmers to play.

Our fathers skipped in the wheat our fathers hung in the branches. Our fathers danced in the street.

"Set them to work in the cornland, With ploughs and sickles and flails, Put them in mud-walled prisons, And cut off their beautiful tails! 'Now we can watch our fathers, Sullen and bowed and old.
