Hockey, the pastor, presided at the platform meeting, which in-cluded patriotic addresses by Messrs. W. O. Sealey and E. D. Smith, and a miscellaneous programme, in which Misses Moore, Medley, Mr. Jos. Ever-ett, the Nelson trio, and Rev. T. J. Pařr, of this city, took part. The Waterdown orchestra furn-ished excellent music.

Cashing a Judgment

Cashing a Judgment Mrs. Turner was recently awarded damages against the city for injur-les sustained by a fall. Now several claimants are trying to take a fall out of the money coming to Mrs. Turner. Judge Monck heard a mo-tion for speedy judgment on a claim for the doctor's bill, growing out of Mrs. Turner's accident. Sev-eral lawyers appeared in the mat-ter, and the Judge finally decided that the doctor must sue in the Di-vision Court for his money. Garni-shee orders are threatened against the money.
