Games at Toronto.

Mox Schmidt Made a Good Showing.

Toronto, June 21 .- The annual games of the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club at Scarboro Beach on Saturday attracted a crowd of about twelve hundred people, about one-fourth the number the very excellent card should have drawn. It was one of the best programmes ever offered at a track and field meet in Toronto, and with heavyweight lifting, wrestling, cycle racing and other special. ties, in addition to the list of events usually seen at such meets, provided a very fine afternoon's sport.

very fine afternoon's sport. Lou Sebert was a trifle too good for the rest of them in the sprints. Jack Tait won the three-mile, Frank Schofield ran a splendid race in the five and won Sandily. Goorge Goulding, of course, won the walk, and Aquila Skene, a brother of "Chuck" Skene, galloped off with the half-mile handicap. Ed. Archi-bald, Dr. Cal. Brieker, Irving Parkes, Will Anderson, Jack Tait, George Gould-ing and Lou Sebert, of the Canadian Olympic team, were competitors. The fields were very large, and heats were 'necessary in many of the events. In spite of the hard work of the rein-forced gangs of men who were put to work on the track, the latter was not smooth enough to use on Saturday, and the middle distance and distance runs, as well as the sprints and cycle races, were smooth enough to use on Saturday, and the middle distance and distance runs, as well as the sprints and cycle ruces, were done on the grass. The hundred was laid out down the centrefield, and a five-lap track was measured just inside the christ statistic structure. The slow going and strong wind interfered with fast time.

Sebert, Bricker, Cox and Hardman were the heat winners in the handicap hundred, Sebert winning the final by a small margin from Bricker and Cox. Low also won the 220 handicap after taking his heat in hollow fashion. In the final by a small margin from Bricker and Cox. Low also won the 220 handicap after taking bis heat in hollow fashion. In the mile handicap Jack Near, Cen-tral's long distance plugger, was set out 60 yards, and the way he tore off the balance of the distance was as surprise to those, who thought that he had no speed for a short distance. Nobedy suc-ceeded in reaching him. Raymond Highes, of the Irish-Canadians, ran a pretty race and came with a sprint at the finish to take second from W. Scholes, of West End. "Chuck" Skene started from scratch and caught a lot of the short handicapped men, but could not do better than fifth place. In the yrestling Jack Cart, of Hamil-ton, was protested, as some of his op-ponents claimed that he was over weight in the 115-pound class. Callen threw him in the final, however, so nothing was done in the matter. When Mox Schmidt won from Lappanen in the heavyweight class the latter got a brok-eu rib. Schmidt tossed his opponent around like a cork, and got the decision in four minutes. Both men weighed about 160 pounds. A protest was also made in this contest on the ground that the winner had wrestled with profes-sionals. Lack McMaster, also of this city, won

On Saturday afternon the Hamilton Rowing Club held its first regatia of the season, under favorable conditions. The competing fours were as follows: J. Shelley, (bow), D. Duncan, J. H. McCoy, B. O. Hooper (stroke). B. Tassie (bow), C. A. Grantham, K. W. Murray, E. Hogg (stroke). E. Shelley (bow), T. Walker, R. Slat-er, C. O. Pilgrim (stroke). R. Thompson (bow), N. Clark, J. S. Dwyer, K. Baldwin (stroke). The first heat was between the Hooper and he Hogg crews, and after a hard and close race was won by Hogg's crew yeals a length, and the second was won by Pilgrim by a boat length. The final heat between Hogg and Pil-grim proved to be one of the best races in the club's history. By a desperable year. The crews, although the season has The crews, although the season has beeu backward, rowed in good form, es-pecially the new men, and as there is a great deal of rivalry between the crews, some good races can be looked for this summer. The club have "received their coaching launch, and will be in commission from now on.

JACK JOHNSON IN A PULPIT.

Boston, June 20.— After pleading guilty and paying a fine of 815 in the police court here on Saturday for a vio-lation of a street traffic regulation, Jack Johnson, the world's heavy-weight champion puglist, appeared last night as a lecturer in the Rush A. M. E. Zion Church in Cambridge, Johnson expressed little hope of ever meeting the former champion, James J. Jeffries. He said: "I am satisfied that Jeffries and I will never fight. The reason for this "I am satisfied that jettries and t will never fight. The reason for this is that he is growing fat, and I don't care to meet a man who comes out of retirement. I want a real live one. Then let the better man win."
