DOUBLE LYNCHING BY MOB AT CAIRO.

become impatient during the efforts to induce the negro to make a statement, and there were demands for "work."

The lynching of Henry Salzer, the white man, for the brutal murder of the negro on August 15 last, was a rebuke to delayed justice.

A crowd of women were in the mob last night, and they loudly called for Salzer's execution.

Salzer killed his wife, but he was greeted with jeers and blows. With the rope around his neck he stated that his sister killed his wife, which so enraged the mob that they did not want to let him pray, but cooler heads prevailed, and he was allowed a moment's respite.

CITY NOW QUIET.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 12.—Arthur Alexander, the negro implicated in the assault and murder of Miss Ann Pelley, by the confession of the lynched negro James, was safely lodged in the county jail this morning by the officers.

The officers put a policeman's uniform on Alexander, thus helping him to escape detection. The mob learned that he was in jail, and could easily have taken him out, but it was thought best to let the matter rest for the moment, and the mob dispersed and the city is so calm and quiet that no signs of the mob's work can be detected by the casual observer.

TROOPS CALLED.

Mayor and Chief of Police Guarded in Their Homes.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Governor Deneen retired at 3 o'clock this morning, after directing Acting Adjutant-General Dickson at Springfield to make arrangements for rushing a second regiment to Cairo early to-day in case of another violent outbreak of rioting following the night of terror in which two men were lynched by a mob of Illinois citizens.

Just before he went to bed the Governor conversed over the long distance telephone with Deputy Sheriff Woodward, of Alexander County, Cairo. Woodward told him that the mob was still restless, though greatly reduced in numbers.

"There are at least 1,500 men at the river front," the deputy sheriff reported, "and they are searching all the freight cars in the yards looking for Alexander who was implicated by James in the killing of the Pelley girl."

"What we now fear most is that the prejudices aroused to-night may result in the burning of houses and that more serious riots will occur."

"Will one regiment of troops be enough?" Gov. Deneen asked Woodward. "The Carbondale company," he explained to the deputy, "will be there early this morning, at least five other companies will reach there before 9 o'clock and the entire regiment will be on the ground by noon at the latest. I have also arranged for the immediate transportation of another regiment in the morning."

The governor asked the sheriff if the saloons had been ordered closed, and when informed that saloons run by the white inhabitants were still open and that many in the mob were drinking freely, he suggested that all saloons be closed at once and be kept closed until all danger had passed.

Deputy Woodward informed him that Mayor Parsons and the chief of police had not issued such orders, and that they were being guarded at their homes because the infuriated mob had threatened them with harm.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 12.—Last night's mob rule, which cost the life of one negro and one white man, was attributed by Mayor Parsons today to the fact that although the city had had its share of murders there had been no official executions there for ten or fifteen years.

"No one can regret last night's affair more than I do," said the Mayor today. "I do not think that any blame attaches to any official. The entire community was worked up to such a pitch that prevention was impossible. I believe that the majority of the citizens are pleased at the turn of affairs, and while they deplore the disgrace of the city and State, they believe that the result will be salutary."

There has not been an official execution in Cairo for 10 or 15 years. Jurors have failed to convict in homicide cases or have convicted only for minor degrees, and it has been possible for murderers to escape. In fact, murder in Cairo has, I regret to say, been tolerably safe.

The feeling against crime that has so long been suppressed found vent, and I believe Cairo will be peaceful and law-abiding hereafter."

BANKER DEAD.

Had Gone to New York Hotel With a Woman. Found Dead Next Morning—Search by His Wife.

New York, Nov. 12.—Edwin Hills, the banker and manufacturer of Plainville, Ct., who disappeared yesterday afternoon, and for whom the police had sent out a general alarm, was found late this afternoon dead in a room at the Gilsey House.

He had gone to the hotel and registered with a woman as Mr. and Mrs. Charles French, of Hartford, Ct. Coroner Shady said that death was undoubtedly due to natural causes and probably to heart disease.

Mr. Hills, who had recently returned from the session of the State Legislature, of which he is a member, came to New York yesterday accompanied by his wife. He was accustomed to making frequent trips to New York to consult physicians in regard to his heart, which had been weak for some time. They went to the Imperial Hotel, where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Welch, of Douglaston, L. I. Mr. Welch is Mr. Hills' brother-in-law.

Soon after arriving Mr. Hills said that he had to go to the Bergfeld building, in West Fourth street, to see a Mr. Fitzpatrick. Mr. Fitzpatrick was not in. When her husband did not return last evening Mrs. Hills became alarmed and consulted Mr. Welch. Finally, after waiting until well along in the evening they reported the case to police headquarters and also set several private detectives to work.

Early last evening the missing man entered the Gilsey House, where he was not known. With him was a woman. They registered as Mr. and Mrs. Charles French, Hartford, Ct. The clerk did not notice the pair particularly. He said the woman was a blonde and apparently about 30 or 35 years old. He thought he recognized her as some one who was in the habit of coming into the hotel. They were assigned to a room and went upstairs. Some time this morning the woman came down and left the key at the desk. About 9 in the morning the chamber maid went in to make up the bed. There was no key in the door and she entered with her latch key. She saw that there was some one in the bed and did not go in.

At 11 o'clock she tried again, and, finding the bed still occupied, delayed her work. About 2.30 the manager, Robert Dunlop, told her to go and wake the man up so that she could do her work. She discovered that he was dead. From papers and letters in the dead man's pockets it was suspected that he was Mr. Hills. His brother-in-law was notified and identified the body.

In the room were found all the valuables which Mr. Hills had with him when he left the Imperial and $50 of the $100 he carried. There was a diamond ring valued at $500, a pearl pin worth $500, another worth about $400, a watch which cost $350 and a locket, set with diamonds, which was valued at $450. Coroner Shady said that the man had been dead for several hours when he saw him. His death, he thought, must have occurred about 7 in the morning.

F., held in the Brantford Conservatory of Music. On the arrival of the party Mayor Wood gave an address of welcome. Refreshments were served by the ladies. The party arrived home at 2.10 this morning, having made the run in forty-five minutes.
