

Mother's Day.

Out within our little cottage, As the shadows gently fall, While the sunlight touches softly One sweet face upon the wall...

The Tongue.

"The boneless tongue, so small and weak, Can crush and kill," declared the Greek.

A Child's Prayer.

By Rev. Richard W. Alexander, in The Missionary.

A True Story. (Concluded)

"If it were not for this," he muttered; and his thoughts went back over the decades of years that were gone, and the memory of the text of Scripture came back.

Days passed by. School was resumed. The daily routine of life began again, but Mr. C. was not happy.

Itching Skin

Distress by day and night—That's the complaint of those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum—and our applications do not cure, they can't.

The source of the trouble is in the blood—make that pure and this rash, burning, itching skin disease will disappear.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

to give it up. But the "strong team" was at work. And although some days passed by, he thought it over.

While we never cease to pray That at last, when lengthening shadows Mark the evening of our day.

Monks of Bath.

In the course of a paper on the history of Charlcombe, read before the members of the Somerset Archaeological and Natural History Society, last week some interesting sidelights were thrown on the relations existing between the ancient monks of Bath, England, and the villaenias of those days.

Another Charter noticed was a record by Robert Bishop of Bath, that Asceline Hostatus had confessed that the complaint of the monks concerning the non-delivery of fifty salmon which were due from the land at Charlcombe was true and reasonable.

Centenary of Foundress.

Apropos of the centenary of Blessed Julie Billiart, who died April 8, 1916, the Queen's Work for April has an account of the Order of the Sisters of Notre Dame of Namur, of which she is the foundress.

Galway Cathedral.

The time when Galway, Ireland, will have a suitable Cathedral is drawing appreciably nearer. Presiding the other day at a meeting for the promotion of a bazaar for that object, Bishop O'Dea said that even during war times about $10,000 in capital and interest had been added to the funds already in hand and it will soon be possible to start the work.

Spanish Prelate Dead.

The Most Reverend Valerian Menendez Conde, Archbishop of Valencia, Spain, died suddenly on March 5. He was born in Luina, in the diocese of Oviedo, on November 24, 1848, was nominated Titular Bishop of Tamasso on September 15, 1887, was translated to Tuy on May 24, 1894, and was promoted to the Archiepiscopal See of Valencia on May 28, 1914.

Was All Choked Up

Could Hardly Breathe.

BRONCHITIS

Was The Cause; The Cure Was DR. WOOD'S Norway Pine Syrup.

Mrs. Garnet Burns, North Augusta, Ont., writes: "I caught a dreadful cold, going to town, and about a week after I became all choked up, and could hardly breathe, and could scarcely sleep at night for coughing."

Yours gratefully, MRS. C. D. PRINCE. Nauwigawauk, Oct. 21st.

An elderly lady who rather plumes herself on her sharpness and general knowledge went to a church sociable. She was warmly greeted by the young women: "Good evening, auntie; we are glad you came. We are going to have tableaux this evening."

W. H. O. Wilkinson, Stratford says:—"It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price 50c a box.

Doctor—How do you feel, Colonel, when you have actually killed a man? Colonel—Oh, not so bad. How do you?

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES COLDS, ETC.

"What was the play you saw last night?" "The play? Too bad. I forgot to look at the program."

Mary Orvinton, Jasper Ont writes:—"My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Hagyard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days. Price 25 cents."

"Arry—Wot does 'Not transfer-able' mean on this ticket. Pat—Sure, it means that you won't be admitted if you don't go yourself."

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DANDRUFF.

A singer who recently passed an evening at the house of a lady stayed late. As he rose to go the hostess said:

"Pray, don't go yet, Mr. Basso. I want you to sing something for me."

"Oh, you must excuse me to-night; it is very late, and I should disturb the neighbors."

"Never mind the neighbors," answered the lady quickly; "they poisoned our dog yesterday."

Heart Would Beat Violently. Nerves Seemed to Be Out of Order.

The heart always works in sympathy with the nerves, and unless the heart is working properly the whole nerve system is liable to become unstrung, and the heart itself become affected.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will build up the unstrung nervous system, and strengthen the weak heart, so that the sufferer will enjoy the very best of health for years to come.
