

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

ONOWAY.

Bulletin News Service.
A large number of the farmers of this district, who went freighting this winter, have returned on account of the big thaw, which has spoiled the roads.

A meeting of the Onoway branch of the United Farmers of Alberta was held in Haddock's store this evening. The meeting opened at 8 p.m. A very large number being present.

The minutes of the former meeting were read by the secretary-treasurer, P. Brown, after which eleven new members were enrolled, making thirty altogether.

A vote of sympathy was passed to Mr. and Mrs. Beaupre in the sad loss of their daughter, which occurred recently.

The secretary-treasurer then read the correspondence he had received, after which followed a long discussion on the hail insurance problem. It was passed that the meetings from now on, the first Saturday in every month, the next meeting to be held in the Onoway school house at 7:30 p.m. on the first Saturday. The meeting closed at 10:15 p.m.

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.
Mr. Kirkwood was in town last Sunday renewing acquaintances. A sale of homemade cooking was held at the residence of Mrs. West, by the Presbyterian ladies on Thursday.

Rev. Mr. Hogg returned from Fort Saskatchewan on Monday where he took the Sunday service. Mr. Alexander of Millet took his place here. Mr. Vogel went to Edmonton on Wednesday last.

T. G. Young, formerly employed by C. C. Bailey, jeweler here, went to Camrose Thursday where he is going into the jewellery business for himself. He will be greatly missed by his many friends in Wetaskiwin.

Hazel Alberta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wisterston, died at the Scandinavian hospital, after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. She was seven years of age. The funeral took place today.

On Thursday morning a body was found beside the express train crew, who carried the city until Sunday. The body was found by the coroner, Dr. Robertson, with a jury went out and brought the body into town. It was found to be P. J. Donnelly of Stettler. His brother in Vancouver was notified.

A. W. Macquie was in town the latter part of this week shaking hands with his many old friends.

The sky was light and bright this week by prairie fires on the Indian reserve south of here.

LEUDUC.
Bulletin News Service.
C. H. Gordon, lumber dealer, and manufacturer of "Vergilville" was in town yesterday on business.

The green ribbon was much in evidence yesterday on the streets of Leuduc. Birt Anderson of this town, who is at present in the hospital in Edmonton, is convalescing rapidly and expects soon to be around town again.

Leuduc's street lighting plant which has not been working well lately was fixed a few days ago, and now from its position at the corner of the fire hall gives light to all the street as far as its beams will reach.

Patrick MacDonald formerly of the Merchants Bank, Lacombe, is now filling the position of ledger-keeper in the branch here, which was lately vacated by Mr. Evans.

The streets of Leuduc are getting dusty and the condition of the roads is everywhere. The plow willows are budding. Farmers are smiling at the signs of the weather and taking out new machinery.

Summer sports have commenced again and will soon be in full swing. A few have commenced kicking the pikeball while some others have been fixing up the tennis court on the lake shore at the back of A. M. Anderson's residence.

Mr. Grimes, who has been seriously ill for eight or ten days past is able to be out again.

Leuduc, March 19th.

LLOYDMINSTER.

Bulletin News Service.
After the prolonged negotiations in connection with the electric light question there is much satisfaction felt at the announcement that Morrison Bros. have finally sold their interest in the plant to Mr. W. Johnson of this town.

It is expected that the light will be in operation in a few weeks and Lloydminster will again occupy the position of being one of the best lighted towns between Edmonton and Saskatoon.

George Mayberry has sold his well known jewelry business in Church street, to H. G. Willis, of Winnipeg, who is making considerable additions to the resources and capacities of the business. Some surprise was felt in the town, at Mr. Mayberry forsaking his thriving and prosperous store at this time when business is increasing so rapidly for all our storekeepers.

Mrs. Mayberry has been farming his land south of Lloydminster by proxy for some years and the last two years have been so gratifying that he has decided to get right in on his land this season and pocket the profits alone when the grain is shipped.

Only two cases were on the docket at the district court held here on Tuesday last before his honor Judge Taylor. The case of Webster vs. Anderson was adjourned as the plaintiff failed to put in an appearance. Jenkins vs. Preston was dismissed after a patient hearing of very tangled case. H. C. Lisle and Mr. Nuro were the counsel in each case.

Yesterday's creamery meeting, with J. Campbell in the chair, had some very encouraging profits put before them of the rapidly increasing interest of the Lloydminster farmers for the institution. H. C. Lisle, M.L.A., the president announced his intention of buying a round of visits to the various farms interested in the creamery. Arrangements were concluded to provide for the transport of the cream from now on, the first Saturday in every month, the next meeting to be held in the Onoway school house at 7:30 p.m. on the first Saturday. The meeting closed at 10:15 p.m.

Onoway, March 14th.

ATHABASCA, LANDING.
I. Gagnon and J. L. Lessard returned Sunday from Edmonton.

Mrs. R. C. Farrell and Mrs. H. C. Burbank left Tuesday for Edmonton, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Rev. C. F. Hopkins returned Wednesday from Edmonton. He will leave in a few days for Grouard, where he will assist in the church work the next few weeks. During his absence, Rev. Mr. Douglas Telford, of Clover Bar, will conduct the services in the Methodist Church here.

Captain George W. Riddle, of the Northern Transportation Company, arrived back Wednesday night for the season's work.

The large boiler of Brick & Boyd's traction engine passed through the village last Saturday. One of the large traction wheels, which was freighted through by John Boker, is now lying upon the banks of the river, about six miles below Mirror Landing.

Mr. Boker had the misfortune to break through the ice, and the wheel was hauled out only with great difficulty. Owing to the mild weather, Boker left the wheel on the bank of the river and is rushing the balance of the freight through before the break up.

John Russell returned Wednesday from Edmonton.

Margus Brown has commenced work on the Hudson's Bay Company's boats. Owing to the early spring these boats will be completed much sooner than in previous years. The company will use between 25 and 30 of these boats this summer.
