tard. Scalloped lamb or mutton.
Stuffed eggplant. Potatoes.
Cream sauce. Ginger water ice.

Cut out these recipes and paste them replace in the squash and bake about three-quarters of an hour.

Election Cake (over 100 years old)— Two and one-half cups raised bread dough, two cups sugar, one-half cup butter, two eggs (a little of the white reserved), cinnamon, nutmeg, pinch of salt, one-half teaspoon soda, one-half cup stoned and chopped raisins, one-half cup currants. Beat together sugar, butter and eggs until smooth.
Beat these into the dough with the hand until well mixed. Exchange hand for spoon, stir in spice, salt and fruit. Pour into two buttered pans.
Cover and let stand in warm place one-half hour. The rising will be per-

Almond Soup, with Custard—Four cups sliced sweet almonds; scald sugar. Heat over a moderate fire.

Meanwhile mix smoothly the yolks of two eggs, a wineglass full of milk and a little salt and pepper. Put into small pan rubbed with salad oil, set into larger pan containing hot water. Heat until the custard hardens. Cut into inch thin strips. When the soup boils mix a half-cup of it with the beaten the bread crumbs are brown.

Stuffed Eggplant—Cut an eggplant a sufficiently thick rind to hold it in.

Chop the flesh fine and mix with an equal amount of chopped bread, two tablespoons melted butter, a teaspoonful of salt, a quarter teaspoon black pepper and a dash of cayenne. Mix thoroughly and put into shells. Bake in the shells for 15 minutes, add a slice of bacon and bake in a quick —For some time past rails have occasionally been placed across the Viandine road, near the London View Hotel. It is supposed this practice has been the work of some lads living in the vicinity. A number of wheels and wheelmen have been injured in consequence, one rider receiving a very serious fall. The county police have been notified, and they will take steps to have the perpetrators of the offense prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

—Pte. Chandler, of Wolseley Barracks, was very much exercised last night. After purchasing some parsnips for use in the garden, he went back and placed it on the window sill, and in the absence of his parents for a few minutes, a 3-year-old boy investigated the parcel, and, as usual in tasting it, spilled it all over his pretty little suit. This excited his parents, who feared that he had swallowed some of the poison. An emetic was administered, but no traces of paris green were found.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
R. J. M. Webbe, Waterloo (formerly of London), will be pained to hear of the sad death of their 7-months-old child who died on Friday evening. The little boy had been ill for only a short time, and medical aid was called in on Friday morning. The physician pronounced it to be a case of diphetheria, and despite all that tender care and the physician's skill could avail, his young spirit took its flight on Friday evening. The remains were interred this morning. The grief-stricken parents have the sympathies of the Twin City and community in this bereavement.—[Berlin News-Record.]

—The services in St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday were very impressive.
At 8:30 Right Rev. Bishop O'Connor celebrated mass and administered the Holy Communion and sacrament of confirmation to about 80 children and nine adults. At 10:30 high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Tierney, assisted by Rev. Fathers McKeown and Tobin. In the afternoon the meeting of the newly-confirmed children and adults was held, for the purpose of consecration and renewal of their baptismal vows. Father McKeown delivered the usual address, which was full of helpful suggestions. The girls of the class were attired in white, with long white veils, and many of the boys carried bouquets of natural flowers.

A MATTER OF COLORS.

"Sister Millie wants to know if you won't let us take your big awning?
She's going to give a party tomorrow night, and wants to have it on the piazza."

"Wants my awning?"

"Yep. She would have borrowed the squares, but theirs is blue, you know, and Millie's hair is red."

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Squire J. B. Smyth and Mr. James Magee, were occupied from 10 in the morning until late in the afternoon at the city hospital yesterday, taking the deposition of Nellie Nichol, of Westminster, who is in a very delicate condition, as the result of an alleged criminal assault by Louis Rundle. Miss Nichol is under 14 years of age, and well connected, and the accused is also a member of a respectable family. According to the girl's statement the offense was committed near Tempo, in September last, and true to her promise she refused to divulge the name of her alleged assaulter until compelled to do so. The child is a healthy one and doing well, but a surgical operation will have to be performed on its mother this week. Rundle was committed for trial.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

No. 2 committee of the board of education held a meeting last night and decided to recommend the board to proceed with repairs to the city schools. An inspection was made a few days ago, and the committee reported the schools in very good condition this year.

TERMINATED FATALITY.

It will be learned with deep regret that the accident to John W. Fogg, engineer on the Northern Pacific superior train near Chicago, the other day, has terminated fatally. Mr. Fogg was a native of London, and Mrs.
Fogg of Hyde Park. The sympathy of a large circle of friends will go out to her in the great bereavement she has sustained.

night. The attendance was larger than the first event of last season.

music.

Mr. J. P. Treble, of the Buffalo Fish Company, has been spending a few days at Port Stanley. Rumor says he is withdrawing his interests from the Port on account of not getting a license this season.

Rev. C. Purton preached two very acceptable sermons in Christ Church on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Steele, the newly-appointed incumbent, is expected to arrive here, and take up residence permanently during the week. He has lately married, and will occupy the pulpit Climax of the Campaign.

Special Meetings of the Salvation Army Ended

With a Musical Evening in the Auditorium—Concluded of the Commissioners With the Other Officers of the Corps.

The climax of the special campaign conducted in London by Field Commissioner Eva Booth and staff for the last three days was a musical evening at the Auditorium. An excellent programme was provided. One of the features was the music furnished by the territorial headquarters staff band, brass and string. They were under the leadership of Ensign Kenning, and greatly pleased the audience in a number of selections. A part of the programme, which was probably the most agreeable was the clever work of a quartet of cute little tots adopted by Miss Booth. The children sang and gave a number of musical drills, dumb-bell, bar-bell and Indian club exercises in perfect time. They were liberally applauded.

Miss Booth delivered a short address on the work of the army.

The commissioner spent several hours at the citadel yesterday, con-fering with the officers as to the best means of promoting the work in their respective fields. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the commissioner and about 40 staff and field officers had tea on the lawn at the Rescue Home.

The evening party, including Miss Booth and the staff officers, left this morning for Stratford.

Among the officers who have been attending the special services are:
Major and Mrs. Gaskin and Staff-Capt.
Horne, Toronto; Adjutant Archibald, Chatham; Adjutant Dowell, Windsor; Adjutant and Miss Arketh, St. Thomas; Ensign McKenzie, Peterborough; Ensign Raynor, Tilsonburg; Capt.
Ottawa, Essex; Capt. Smith, Woodstock; Ensigns Morris, Bate, Turpin and Shea, and Adjutant Morris, of Toronto.
