a good string band has been engaged. Everybody is invited.

—Mr. Fred Evans, whose efforts of late years on behalf of the Young Liberal Minstrels have been so successful, has just returned from the World's Fair. He is, of course, highly enthusiastic. He would have pawned his last year's straw hat rather than have missed the exposition. "We can never expect to see anything like it again," he said. "It has been such a financial failure that no other nation will undertake a similar stupendous project for centuries to come. No city but Chicago could have got such a show together."

—The great day for Kensington Methodist Church and Sunday school was their annual picnic at Wonderland this week. Some 200 members of the church and Sunday school with their friends engaged Capt. Foster's boat and celebrated their annual outing down the river at this beautiful picnic ground. The ladies and friends provided a great abundance of provisions which were served to the children and young people of the Sunday school in Capt. Foster's large dining hall. Fully 200 people sat down to the tables. After the meal was finished, Thomas McCormick gave every child of the Sunday school and teachers and officers, as well as the parents, a box of cream candies and an abundant supply of California oranges. After A. M. Hamilton, Mr. Nixon, Mr. J. W. Saunby, Mr. McCormick and Rev. Mr. McVitty had made short and pointed addresses everybody left for home delighted.

Mrs. Harris Dead.

Mrs. Ann Harris, an aged resident of London township, died yesterday. The unhappy event occurred at the old homestead, which her husband—the late John Harris, who is deceased now about fourteen years—created when they came to this country almost five decades ago.

The eldest son, Mr. Richard Harris, has occupied the farm for some time. Mrs. Harris leaves five children—three boys and two girls.

Wouldn't Give Evidence.

About a month ago Mr. Wm. F. Holman reported to the police that a number of valuable, including a gold watch, $85 and two diamond studs, belonging to him had been stolen from a locker in the London Rowing Club's clubhouse. The detectives were asked to look the matter up. This they did. Their efforts were crowned with success. Michael Moylan was arrested. Upon his person were found two diamond studs—beautifully set and semiprecious.

Three Mr. Wm. F. Holman identified as his. A brush found upon the prisoner was also recognized by Frederick McMillan, caretaker of the boat house mentioned, as belonging to that institution. When the prisoner was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday Mr. Holman did not appear to give evidence. Moylan was discharged. Chief Williams ordered that the two studs be returned to Mr. Holman.

Jeremiah Macdonald appeared to answer a charge of breaking the police commissioners' resolutions. No evidence was offered. The case was dismissed. James Sharp, of Chatham, the man who stole a suit of clothes from Thomas Fox, was sent to jail for two months.
