AT JOE WHEELER'S HOME. Decatur, Ala., May 1.-All the steam whistles screamed a greeting at Decatur, the home of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, as the president's train entered city, and the fellow-townsmen of the veteran gave the executive a particularly enthusiastic reception.

MARI: HANNA ILL. Washington, May 1.-Senator Hanna had another serious attack of heart failure Saturday. Every effort was made to keep it quiet, but it is learned that while writing a letter he fell unconscious to the floor of his office in his house. His physician ordered him to remain in his bed, but he felt so much improved that he occupied a box at the theater during the evening. Under orders from his physician, the senator is keeping quiet for a few days.

THE RAILWAY BILL. London, May 1. - The discussion in the House of Commons of a private bill conferring additional powers on the London and Northwestern Railway led to a great deal of acrimonious recrimination. John Burns (Socialist), who, with the opposition generally, opposed the measure, was called to order by the speaker for stigmatizing some of the railroad representatives in the house as 'ornamental guinea pigs." Mr. Burns' special reference was to Mr. Mac-Artney, who was elected a director of the Lincoln and Northwestern Railroad, after having been appointed financial secretary to the admiralty. The bill was finally rejected by a vote of 210 to 202 amid great cheering. Swift MacNeill (Liberal) then vigorously protested against the impro-priety of Mr. MacArtney, who was financially interested, in voting in favor of the bill, and he moved that the vote be disallowed.

Mr. MacArtney hotly vindicated himself on the ground that he was following precedent. He then walked out of Mr. Balfour appealed to the house to express itself decisively against the principle underlying Mr. MacNeill's

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, John Dillon and others thought it an ex-cellent opportunity to lay down a general rule that the vote of a director

London, May 1. — The Insurance Review today exposes in detail the OF PHILIPPINE LEADERS swindle referred to by the Statist, April 12, when the latter announced the discovery of a clique of swindlers, making London their headquarters, who professed to represena a leading American insurance company. According to the Insurance Review, hundreds of Frenchmen have been swindled by the method mentioned by the Statist. The swindlers would notify the family a man recently deceased that the last premium which ought to have been paid at a given date, usually very recent, had not been paid, and that if it was not forwarded by a specified date the policy would lapse. widow would then hasten to send a remittance. The swindlers transacted business under the name of the Golden Grain Insurance Company of New with a capital of 16,000,000 francs. All the communications of the oncern, a fac-simile of whose headline was reproduced, were signed J. De Vilmorin, No. 16 Old Compton street, London, which is a cheap French cafe. Vilmorin's agents in France, who kept him informed of the deaths of well-to-do persons, all proved their innocence, and were reeased. The authorities of Scotland Yard are searching for the instigators, but without success up to the moment

COUNT TOLSTOI'S REPLY. Paris, May 1.-The Temps publishes a two-column reply from Count Tol-stoi to the decree of excommunication pronounced against him. He says that as a result of the decree he has received letters from ignorant people menacing him with death. He characterizes the decree as illegal or un intentionally equivocal, arbitrary, unjustifiable and full of falsehoods. Moreover, he says: "It constitutes an instigation to evil sentiments and deeds." Count Tolstoi denounces the practices of the church as a compound of vulgar superstitions and sorcery under which entirely disappears the sense of Christian doctrine.

CABLE NOTES. The director of the German Government shipyard at Williamshafen has issued a warning to all the laborers employed at the yard against absenting themselves from work and participating in May-day processions. A Paris dispatch to Le Soir says that the Nihilist plot was discovered

Warsaw and that ramifications of the conspiracy exist among all classes of Polish societies and especially among the workmen. Among the 600 arrests made since last night there are sev eral highly placed personages. Mar-tial law has been declared in the three towns occupied by the Cossacks. Eleven of the Berlin papers print an article from the Hamburger Nachrichten, in which it is said that Baron Von Lucanus, chief of the emperor's civil cabinet, is intriguing against Count Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, on the ground that the latter is pois-Lucanus. The article in question also says that a reorganization of the min-istry is probable.

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Knew Something Besides What He Read in Books.

The wise, up-to-date, modern doctor is no longer tied down to the hard and fast rules of what his medical books say he shall use and what he may withhold in treating

The successful doctor nowadays is the one who is quick to avail himself of any remedy, new or old, which holds out a chance of cure, no matter whether it is Allopathic, Homeopathic, or neither one.

Dr. Jennison, in an interesting article on indigestion and dyspepsia says: "Ninetenths of all people who apply to me for advice and treatment think they have this ailment, or that ailment, but I find that on close examination that their whole trouble arises from poor digestion.

"They have little appetite and if they do have an appetite the food they eat does them no good. Why? Because it is but half digested, causing thin blood; weak nerves, sleeplessness, aching bones, pains in chest, formation of gases, belching, etc. They tell me they believe they have consumption or heart disease, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact, most every disease but the right one.

"In reality the whole trouble is in the stomach and nowhere else. Now what do I do with such people? I don't feed them on predigested foods like babies, nor "stomach bitters," nor patent nostrums which I know nothing about. No honorable physician will prescribe a remedy unless he knows what it contains and its probable effects. For all such patients I have but one prescription, I advise them to go to the nearest drug store and get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I use them with remarkable success in all cases of indigestion and stomach trouble, because I know what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets consists of and what they will do. They contain the vegetable essences, diastase and government-test pepsin which are the things every weak stomach lacks to restore natural digestive vigor, and if I had dyspepsia myself it is the one remedy I should take.

"When a patient comes to me complaining of dull headaches, sour stomach, bad taste, nervousness, belching of gas, or heart trouble which is generally caused from indigestion I tell him to take one or two of Stuart's Tablets after each meal and as often during the day as he has any trouble, and I feel confident that I have given that patient the best advice I could give."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, containing diastase and pepsin combined with fruit and vegetable essences. They are not cathartic and do not act on any particular organ like ordinary drugs but simply act entirely on the food eaten. They are a natural digestive, pure and simple.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain.
