REACHED AUSTRALIA!

Arrival of the Duke and Duchess of York at Albany.

Thirty-Five Per Cent of British Loan Awarded to American Subscribers.

Hot Debate in the British House of Commons Over a Private Bill.

THE ROYAL TOURISTS. Fremantle, Western Australia, April 30.—The British steamer Ophir, having on board the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, has arrived at Albany, West Australia. She reports all well on board.

HERBERT GLADSTONE. London, May 1.—Herbert Gladstone's recent admission that in spite of the results of the government's war and financial policies, it was impossible to think of another general election or alternative move, may cause him to relinquish the position of chief whip. Mr. Gladstone has made a formal explanation that in the statement he was speaking for self and not for party.

THE LOAN. At the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. it was announced that 35 per cent of the amount subscribed for of the British loan had been awarded to the American subscribers.

THE RAILWAY BILL. London, May 1.—The discussion in the House of Commons of a private bill conferring additional powers on the London and Northwestern Railway led to a great deal of acrimonious recrimination. John Burns (Socialist), who, with the opposition generally, opposed the measure, was called to order by the speaker for stigmatizing some of the railroad representatives in the house as "ornamental guinea pigs." Mr. Burns' special reference was to Mr. MacArthur, who was elected a director of the Lincoln and Northwestern Railway, after having been appointed financial secretary to the admiralty. The bill was finally rejected by a vote of 210 to 202 amid great cheering.

Swift MacNeill (Liberal) then vigorously protested against the impetuosity of Mr. MacArthur, who was financially interested, in voting in favor of the bill, and he moved that the vote be disallowed.

Mr. MacArthur hotly vindicated himself on the ground that he was following precedent. He then walked out of the house.

Mr. Raftery appealed to the house to express itself decisively against the principle underlying Mr. MacNeill's motion. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, John Dillon and others thought it an excellent opportunity to lay down a general rule that the vote of a director should not be allowed.

Keir Hardie (Socialist) said he considered it time for the house to adopt a higher standard of purity, adding that there was strong feeling in the country that the house was becoming more and more corrupt financially.

This remark caused some uproar. Some of the members protested against the imputation, and the speaker informed Mr. Hardie that he must not be disrespectful to the house. Mr. Hardie, however, proceeded to say that the working people regarded the house as an annex to the stock exchange.

The house then divided and rejected the motion by 268 to 205 votes. A number of government supporters voted against the railway.

HUNDREDS DUPED. London, May 1.—The Insurance Review today exposes in detail the swindle referred to by the Statist, April 12, when the latter announced the discovery of a clique of swindlers, making London their headquarters, who professed to represent a leading American insurance company. According to the Insurance Review, hundreds of Frenchmen have been swindled by the method mentioned by the Statist. The swindlers would notify the family of a man recently deceased that the last premium which ought to have been paid at a given date, usually very recent, had not been paid, and that if it was not now paid, a specified date the policy would lapse.

The widow would then hasten to send a remittance.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, John Dillon and others thought it an excellent opportunity to lay down a general rule that the vote of a director should not be allowed.

CABLE NOTES. The director of the German Government shipyard at Wilhelmshaven has issued a warning to all the laborers employed at the yard against absenting themselves from work and participating in May-day processions.

A Paris dispatch to Le Soir says that the Nihilist plot was discovered in Warsaw and that ramifications of the conspiracy exist among all classes of Polish societies and especially among the workmen.

Among the 80 arrests made since last night there are several highly placed personages. Martial law has been declared in the three towns occupied by the Cossacks. Eleven of the Berlin papers print an article from the Hamburger Nachrichten, in which it is said that Baron von Lucanus, chief of the emperor's civil cabinet, is intriguing against Count Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, on the ground that the latter is poisoning the emperor's mind against him. Lucanus, the article in question also says that a reorganization of the ministry is probable.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

KNOW HIS BUSINESS.

Knew Something Besides What He Read in Books.

The wise, up-to-date, modern doctor is no longer tied down to the hard and fast rules of what his medical books say he shall use and what he may withhold in treating his patient.

The successful doctor nowadays is the one who is quick to avail himself of any remedy, new or old, which holds out a chance of cure, no matter whether it is Allopathic, Homeopathic, or neither one.

Dr. Jennison, in an interesting article on indigestion and dyspepsia says: "Ninety per cent of all people who apply to me for advice and treatment think they have this ailment, or that ailment, but I find that on close examination that their whole trouble arises from poor digestion."

"They have little appetite and if they do have an appetite the food they eat does them no good. Why? Because it is but half digested, causing thin blood; weak nerves, sleeplessness, aching bones, pains in chest, formation of gases, belching, etc. They tell me they believe they have consumption or heart disease, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact, most every disease but the right one."

"In reality the whole trouble is in the stomach and nowhere else. Now what do I do with such people? I don't feed them on predigested foods like babies, nor 'stomach bitters,' nor patent nostrums which I know nothing about. No honorable physician will prescribe a remedy unless he knows what it contains and its probable effects. For all such patients I have but one prescription, I advise them to go to the nearest drug store and get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I use them with remarkable success in all cases of indigestion and stomach trouble, because I know what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets consists of and what they will do. They contain the vegetable essences, diastase and government-test pepsin which are the things every weak stomach lacks to restore natural digestive vigor, and if I had dyspepsia myself it is the one remedy I should take."

"When a patient comes to me complaining of dull headaches, sour stomach, bad taste, nervousness, belching of gas, or heart trouble which is generally caused from indigestion I tell him to take one or two of Stuart's Tablets after each meal and as often during the day as he has any trouble, and I feel confident that I have given that patient the best advice I could give."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, containing diastase and pepsin combined with fruit and vegetable essences. They are not cathartic and do not act on any particular organ like ordinary drugs but simply act entirely on the food eaten. They are a natural digestive, pure and simple.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY DOWN IN DIXIE.

Southerners Give Him a Warm Welcome—Great Crowds Gather Along the Route—Mark Hanna Ill.

Huntsville, Ala., May 1.—Crowds at every station cheered and waved to the presidential party as its train passed along, and every farm house and cross roads had its group of eager watchers.

At Huntsville a stop of ten minutes was made. Apparently the entire population of the town turned out to welcome the president. A big cotton mill is located here and hundreds of the operatives were in the crowd. The station was decorated with American flags and a band was playing as the train drew up to the station.

AT STEVENSON. Stevenson, Ala., May 1.—President McKinley and party arrived here at 7:10 a.m. yesterday. At almost every station passed during the night crowds of people who had remained up to see the presidential special cheered as it sped by. Several hundred persons were at the station at Stevenson, despite the early hour. The president, who had already risen, appeared and bowed his acknowledgments.

AT JOE WHEELER'S HOME. Decatur, Ala., May 1.—All the steam whistles screamed a greeting at Decatur, the home of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, as the president's train entered the city, and the fellow-townsmen of the old veteran gave the executive a particularly enthusiastic reception.

MARK HANNA ILL. Washington, May 1.—Senator Hanna had another serious attack of heart failure Saturday. Every effort was made to keep it quiet, but it is learned that while writing a letter he fell unconscious to the floor in his office in his house. His physician ordered him to remain in his bed, but he felt so much improved that he occupied a box at the theater during the evening. Under orders from his physician, the senator is keeping quiet for a few days.

OLD HEADS AND YOUNG HEARTS. Prescott, Mich., May 1.—Duncan C. McGruer, of Lancaster, Ont., who is visiting his aged daughter, Mrs. Norman G. McLennan, of this place, was

Your Doctor.

We wish you would ask your doctor what he thinks of Vapo-Cresolene. He will say "It's certainly the best way of reaching the throat and lungs, this in a lin g method."
