WOMEN WANT TO BE STOLEN

Two Americans Ready To Be Caught by Brigands.

Germany to Withdraw Her Troops Guarding the Kiao Chou Railway.

Britain Does Not Want to Have a Protectorate Over Kowtow—D'Artagnan Was a Bona Fide Character.

LONG TO BE STOLEN.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The kidnapping of Miss Ellen M. Stone by brigands in Bulgaria has had a curious consequence. Two American women living in the hope that they, too, will be captured.

One of the women called herself Mrs. D'Artagnan, and said she was a widow, 28 years old. The other is known as Miss Stetson. She is 24. Their excuse for making the hazardous experiment is that they intend to write their experiences.

Mrs. Stone is an elderly woman. Her chief danger is that one of the brigands may marry her unless the ransom arrives promptly.

Constantinople, Sept. 30.—C. M. Dickinson, United States consul-general in Constantinople, has made representations to the Bulgarian Government with a view of securing the release of Miss Helen H. Stone and her companion, who were captured by brigands on Sept. 3 near Djuma Bala. It is reported that a number of members of the Bulgarian revolution have been arrested on evidence implicating them in the abduction.

A dispatch from Constantinople reports that a sanguinary conflict has taken place between Mussulmans and Christians in Beirut, Syria. No details are given.

LEAVING CHINA.—It is asserted at Peking on high authority that the German garrison in Shanghai and the German troops who are guarding the railway beyond the Kiao Chou boundary will be withdrawn. At the request of Dr. Von Schwartzstein, the German minister, seven Chinese have been tried and sentenced to be beheaded for complicity in the murder of a German trader in a village near Peking last month.

ROYAL YACHT'S FATE.—The little Elin, the smallest of the royal yachts, is to be broken up after nearly half a century's service as a dispatch boat for the late Queen Victoria. The case of the old Victoria and Albert is at present uncertain.

"DOUBTING THOMASES."—Liverpool men engaged in the shipping trade have no faith in the proposed Canadian fast line. Every wreck on the Canadian shore is a nail in the coffin of the fast line scheme.

Canadian correspondents must remember that the two-cent postage rate to the United Kingdom and the colonies is for half-ounce letters. Very little regard has been paid to the weight, and in consequence thousands of letters received here are surcharged double.

GROUNDLESS SCARE.—The officials of the British foreign office deny that Great Britain contemplates establishing a protectorate over Kowtow, the proposed terminus on the Persian Gulf, of the Bagdad railroad. The officials declare that the presence in those waters of British and Turkish warships is due to a mutual agreement between Turkey and Great Britain to prevent the threatened collision between the native chiefs. The affair is now declared to have no importance.

HIS FALSE TEETH

Slipped Down His Throat and Had To Be Removed With the Knife.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 1.—Maurice A. Brooks, the 19-year-old son of James A. Brooks, while asleep, swallowed a plate with false teeth attached. He was dreaming that the plate had become detached, and had slipped down his throat, and awoke to find the dream a reality. A physician living near by was called, but after an examination the youth was told that he had not swallowed the teeth. As the choking sensation continued, and the boy was unable to eat, the father took him to the Hopkins Hospital, at which Dr. Finney made an examination and found that the teeth had lodged near the top of the breast-bone. Every effort to remove them through the mouth failed and an operation was necessary.

An incision was made in the throat about the top of the breast-bone. The plate could then be plainly seen, but was too deeply imbedded to be removed. The incision was then sewed and the stomach opened. A rubber tube was then passed in the stomach and up the food tract past the plate and out of the mouth. A cord with a sponge at one end was then attached to the protruding end of the tube, and the latter was pulled up. The cord and sponge followed it, and the sponges, catching against the plate, pulled it down the esophagus, and thus into the stomach, from which it was removed.

The operation is a rare one, but young Brooks is expected to recover.

THE HORSE DIED.—Woodstock, Ont., Oct. 1.—The horse which was buried in the straw stack on the farm of Albert King, Hickson, for 40 days and 40 nights, died on Friday. When he was brought by the stack he was a big horse weighing 1,500 pounds and valued at $150. A veterinary surgeon had been attending him since his recovery from the stack. The animal was only allowed a diet of porridge and milk, but was unable to stand the ordeal of going so long without water.

NOT BELIEVED.

Canton, Sept. 30.—Friends of the family of the late President McKinley emphatically discredited belief in the idea that the shot reported fired by Guard De Poudre at West Lawn Cemetery last night was on account of any attempt to desecrate the tomb. They do not attempt to explain the strange story of the guard, but they do not believe that two men would undertake to make an attack on the vault with 70 soldiers on guard or near at hand. There are unconfirmed rumors that the shot was fired on account of an accidental fall, and also that it was the result of personal differences. The officers in charge early captured soldiers not to talk of the affair. Capt. Biddle, commanding the guard at West Lawn Cemetery, said: "I think the sentinel deceived himself in the occurrence. I don't think it probable that an attack such as he stated actually occurred."

A New Departure

A New, Effectual and Convenient Cure for Catarrh.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water down the nose would often relieve, and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old-fashioned salt water douches.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the head with a hot iron to cure a headache.

To cure kidney disease, Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as it is a trouble of the urinary tract, and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach, an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to give the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan, and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position, as I was clerk, and my hearing was absolutely necessary."

"Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, but I had suffered nearly all my life from it. They are pleasant to take, and so much more convenient to use than any other catarrh remedies that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

A little book on cause and cure of catarrh will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., and the tablets are sold by all druggists in the United States and Canada.
