We little thought when you were leaving home that you would not return, But now you are in God's keeping and we are left to mourn.
For a little time we sever ties which time has rendered sweet; May our Savior guard you ever till again our pathways meet; the bonds of love grow dearer, strengthened at a throne of grace, And our Savior draws us nearer to our Father's close embrace; There with all the loved ones who have gone before In the presence of our Savior to dwell for evermore.
