Montreal, Oct. 14.—The receipts of cheese today were 8,205 boxes, as against 5,164 for the same day last week. The tone of this market was about steady, and prices showed no further change, which was attributed to the fact that an increased volume of business was done with English importers overnight, and, in consequence of which, the trading on spot showed some improvement, with the result that the market was rather more active.
