HELP WANTED.

WANTED — BUTCHER — ONE WHO CAN kill, cut up and deliver the same and take charge of the books; state salary; prefer a single mau. Apply at once. Frank Lefix, Parry Sound. citizen. "It has been a matter of regret for years with me that property in the vicinity of St. Lawrence market—which was once in the centre of the city and ought to be now—is going down and not up." He said that in 1854 the building known as the "Flags of All Nations" rented at $2800 per annum, while now it did not return more than $1200 or $1400 a year. "That property has suffered more than any other, but there has been a depreciation in property all round." He said that the market was erected 43 years ago, and while there was abundance of accommodation then it was very different now. In fact, since then the limits of the market had been curtailed instead of extended. He favored a small expenditure in securing plans.

Ald. Verral said that the Committee on Markets and Licenses had made several attempts to have the facilities of the market increased, but that its efforts had been baulked by other committees, particularly the Executive. He promised he would make an effort to carry out the views of the deputation.

There was a large gathering in the Council Chamber of the City Hall yesterday afternoon of merchants doing business in the vicinity of St. Lawrence market.

Their mission was to impress upon the Committee on Markets and Licenses the necessity of improving and increasing the facilities of the market. But as there was not a quorum the meeting was resolved into an informal one with Ald. Verral in the chair.

Ald L. HIME & CO. 20 KING EAST, HAVE houses as follows:

yet, owing to the want of accommodation, it was less. He suggested that the market be extended to the Esplanade, and that a sum of money be offered by the city for the best plans for the desired improvements:

Mr. W. H. Steele of Steele Bros. held there was ample room if the market was put into proper shape.

Mr. Alexander Wheeler suggested asphalt pavements for the market and its surroundings.

mr. William Barrett concurred in the suggestion to extend the market. He said it was a common thing to see half a dozen men at the marketselling produce, and the streets crowded with farmers' wagons, who would not come to the market because of the want of accommodation.

"The market we have here now was built for the requirements of the city 30 years ago, and we have grown since that," was Mr. C. D. Daniel's caustic remark.

A Place For the Sale of Odds and Ends.
Mr. H. J. Bray said that 16 years ago the St. Lawrence was a market in the sense of the word;

MARKET GARDEN TO RENT—THREE OR

years ago the St. Lawrence was a market in the sense of the word; now it was merely a place for the sale of odds and ends, the great bulk of the farm produce being peddled around town to the detriment of the men doing business in the vicinity of the market. He suggested that proper accommodation be provided and that a bylaw be passed compelling farmers and others to bring their produce to the market.

Mr. D. C. Forbes proved the orator of the occasion. "Instead of the market being made a place of attraction it is the reverse. People are driven away and for the very want of accommodation." He complained of the want of railway facility in getting to and from the market.

Well, it must have then, chimed in Assessor Faulkner, for I was there since your appeal came and by actual measurement ascertained that it was just 51 feet wide.

"Then," said Chairman Carlyle, "is it the wish of this board that the assessment be raised?" but the board was lenient and Mr. Mackintosh hastily made himself scarce.

William Ramsay appealed against the axing of his $12,000 income, as he is a resident of Midlothian, Scotland, and is therefore not a citizen of Toronto. Granted.
