CHARLTON MAKES AN EXPLANATION

And Receives a Severe Dressing Down From Mr. Bennett.

The Second Division of the Session on Taking Thursday For Government Business—Charlton Paces at Canada's Benefactor, But Is Called a Traitor by Hon. A. C. Wallace, While Mr. Foster and Annet Also Make Inflammatory Remarks—An Eight-Hour Day Deputation—The Public Accounts Committee—General Capital Notes.

Ottawa, June 4.—The deputation from Canadian Institute which saw Mr. Foster to-day in reference to a Dominion grant towards meeting expenses of the proposed visit of the British Association to Toronto in 1897 met with a most encouraging reception. The deputation consisted of Messrs. A. B. McCullum, B. E. Walker, J. W. L. Forster, and Alan McDougall, and was accompanied by Senator Allan, Col. Denison, E. Costworth, and W. F. Maclelan.
Mr. Foster was the principal speaker, and succinctly sketched the reasons which led the deputation to seek Government aid, and the advantages to be gained by the Association coming to Canada. He stated that the city of Toronto has promised $50,000, the Ontario Government $7500 and they asked that the Dominion promise $20,000, the same amount as was given to Montreal in 1884. He emphasized the fact that the money would not be used to induce mere holiday seekers to come to Canada, but to show the resources of the country to men who would be able to benefit us by directing the investment of capital in this country. After the matter had been thoroughly discussed Mr. Foster said that he would lay the request before the Government and give an answer at an early date. He looked upon the visit of the Association as likely to be of great utility to the Dominion, provided the proper class of men came out. It would really be for Canada a great advertisement, and the social and intellectual benefit would also be great. If the Government decided to give a grant, it must be on the understanding that the visitors would be distributed all over the country, where they might come in practical contact with our resources.

The adoption of the eight-hour day in Government establishments was strongly urged upon the Premier and his colleagues by the deputation from the Ottawa Typographical Union to-day. Sir James Grant, W. F. Maclelan and Annet, M.P.s, were the chief speakers, and presented a strong argument, citing the fact that in other countries and her colonies in the working of this law.

Sir Mackenzie Bowden, in reply, thanked the deputation for waiting upon him and for placing their request and requirements in such a plain and practical manner. Personally he was glad that Mr. Bowden's result for the compliments he had paid him, by alluding to the fact that an old type had risen to the premiere of this country. If ever any of the delegation were so unfortunate as to attain the position which he (Sir Mackenzie) held, they would find that they would have to give up the idea of eight hours a day, as it required a man's whole time, regardless of limitation, to discharge his duties properly. He thought he could fairly claim that the Government, not only to-day, but those which had preceded it, had been most anxious to give after the interests of the laboring man.
Reference had been made to the fact that local governments had done more for the laboring classes than the Dominion Government. He was glad that this allusion had been made, because it gave him an opportunity of defining the position of the Dominion Government. Any action on behalf of labor which the Government might take could only be done in the way of legislation under the subject of "Civil rights and property," and was assigned by the B.N. to the Provincial Legislatures. The Dominion Government could not enforce a law of eight hours as a legal duty, unless it were brought into the Criminal Code and it was made a crime if not obeyed. The deputation would remember, however, that the Government had introduced into the working classes in many ways.
Sir John Macdonald was the first to seek out working men and encourage them to enter into the ranks of the union, who at one time represented Hamilton, was a painter by trade, and was questionable whether or not as a member of Parliament. Their friend, Mr. Ingram, who was present, was an older man who had risen from the ranks, and he was not ashamed to acknowledge that he had worked on the railway. He understood that Sir John Thompson had expressed the opinion in favor of the proposition for an eight-hour day as submitted to him last year and he would gladly convey to his colleagues the important information which the deputation had imparted.
The deputation could depend upon it that the Government would do all that was in its power to give them clearly to understand, however, that while the employees had rights, so also had the employer. If as many or ten, and certainly the valuable information submitted by the deputation went to show that there was a great deal of very strong argument, which it would be difficult to gainsay. He promised a full and early consideration of the wishes of the deputation.

Uniform Fishery Laws.
"We are prepared to meet you half way," was in effect the answer of Hon.
Mr. Costigan to the deputation from the American Fishermen's Association of the St. Lawrence, which waited upon him today. The deputation consisted of State Senator Mullin of Albany and W. H.
Thompson, Secretary of the Association.
The deputation asked for Canadian co-operation in setting apart the Thousand Island section of the St. Lawrence, from Kingston to Ogdensburg, as an international fishing and pleasure resort with uniform laws and regulations.

Mr. Costigan promised the deputation that the license fee would not be used this season against American men, provided the alien labor not enforced against Canadian baitmen.

Senator Mullin in return pledged the Minister that he would get a declaration from Governor Morton to meet the Canadian deputation, and the meantime until legislative action can be taken representatives of the two countries will meet to discuss the regulations. Dr.
Watkins, on behalf of Canada, will attend the forthcoming meeting of the Anglers' Association.

Thursday Government Day.
On a straight party vote of 85 to 65, it was decided this afternoon that hereafter Government business should have precedence on Thursday, thus giving them three days in the week.
Mr. Foster having made his motion to the foregoing effect, Mr. Laurier asked what legislation the Government proposed to bring down this session, and especially what was their policy with respect to the Hudson Bay Railway.

The leader of the House replied that all the important ordinary legislation which the Government would introduce was on the order paper. The Government did not intend to bring down any legislation with regard to the Chignecto Ship Railway. As to the Hudson Bay Railway, he was not in a position to say definitely what course the Government would recommend.

Mr. Laurier said that unless the Government explicitly stated their intention with regard to the Hudson Bay Railway, he must oppose the motion to take Thursday as a Government day.
A discussion took place on Mr. Foster's motion, and it was carried by 85 to 55.

Duty on Foreign Leaf Tobacco.
Hon. Mr. Wood informed Mr. Jeannotte that the question of a duty on foreign leaf tobacco was under consideration. Although he was strongly in favor of protection, he must candidly admit that any Canadian tobacco grower had already 400 per cent. protection as against the importation of foreign leaf, the Canadian producer ought to be satisfied.

Why Charlton Went to Washington.
Mr. Charlton, on motion, informed Supply, how he defended his conduct in going to Washington to urge that Canada be excluded from the operation of the free lumber schedule. In the event of this country imposing an export duty on logs, he said it was originally intended that the free lumber clause of the Wilson Bill should read that lumber should be free conditionally upon the non-existence of an export duty on logs in the country of production.
But by a mistake in printing, the bill was drafted so that the only retaliation the United States could enforce on logs in the country of production was the duty on sawlogs to restore sawlogs to their position in the old tariff, which was waived. The interests of the Southern States were united with those of Michigan and Minnesota in opposition to the free lumber schedule. It was certain that the clause would be struck out altogether. Accordingly, he, Mr. Charlton, in the interests of Canada, suggested that the bill be amended so as to give the United States power to strike out the whole lumber free list if this country re-imposed an export duty on logs. This amendment the free lumber list could have been saved to Canada. (Derisive cheers.) He claimed that the Dominion Government accepted the amendment to avert the hostility of the Michigan lumbermen at Washington, and when that fear was over they meanly re-imposed the duty on logs and chains, thereby endangering free lumber again, and only retreated at his suggestion.
He pointed out that the country had been abandoned to his country, and behind their accounts with the bookkeeper. He intimated that unless some of them settled up right speedily, they would have to be brought in by force.

Some of the Ministers and the Book Room.
Conference Rev. Dr. Briggs of Toronto book steward, fired a bomb by announcing that members of the conference were hundreds and thousands of dollars behind in their accounts with the book-room. He intimated that unless some of them settled up right speedily, they
would have to be brought in by force.

Large Shipments of Wine.
Mr. William Mara, wine and spirit merchant, informed the House yesterday of one of his latest shipments of wine from the Santa Clara Valley, Calif., valued at $100,000. He stated that the unloading of the 25 pipes in Yonge-street created quite an excitement, and that the wine was of a fine quality and unusually good. "Tokay" seems to have taken quite a hold upon the Canadian people.
