

pathy, and in constant contemplation of the happy homes at Strathellon and Dunkerran. In both, children were growing up, and the two beautiful sisters were said to be the best and happiest wives and mothers in the county.

[THE END.]