PUBLISHER'S NOTES

A NEW BOOK ON POULTRY.

In "Poultry Craft," by John H. Robinson (I. S. Johnston & Co., Boston, Mass., publishers), we have an American book prepared especially for American poultry keepers. The whole make-up of the book reveals a design to make it serviceable. It has been a common fault in the best previous works on this subject, that information on one topic would appear in several different places, and sometimes subjects were so mixed that readers experienced great difficulty in finding what they wanted, or in referring a second time to something which had impressed them. It is also noticeable that great care has been exercised in making the index very complete and so arranging it that any given topic can be found in an instant. As showing the completeness of the work, it may be added that though the matter has been so thoroughly condensed, the book actually contains 50 per cent. more reading matter in its 272 pages, than any other of its kind, a fact which would not appear from a comparison of the number of pages, for the pages of "Poultry Craft" are larger than common. The price is $2.00 and the book is sold on approval. Write to I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass., for full description sent free.

THE CANADIAN POULTRY REVIEW.

To meet the wants of advertisers who are continually using this column, and who find it a great trouble to be constantly remitting small amounts, we have adopted the plan of issuing Coupons (as above) good for 30 words each, 4 for $1. Anyone buying these Coupons can use them at any time in lieu of money when sending in an advertisement. Not less than four coupons sold.

THESE RULES must be followed:

1. Payment MUST be made in advance, the amounts are too small to permit of book-keeping.

2. Write copy for ad. on a separate sheet from any other matter, and on one side of the paper only.

3. See that ads. are fully prepaid as per rate above.

4. Say plainly how many times ad. is to be inserted.

5. Give heading under which it is to appear.

Unless above rules are followed we cannot guarantee correctness.
