The Clipper Club was organized in 1874, and is at present one of the best amateur clubs in the Province. In September a challenge was sent by the Clippers to the Toronto Club to play a match for the championship of the city, to which they received no answer, and they therefore claim the championship of Toronto.

LONDON.

The annual meeting of the Beaver club was held on the 6th inst., and reorganized for the coming season. Mr. W. Andrus was elected President and Mr. C. Carrio

CLINTON.—The Blue Stocking base ball club, of Clinton, has played six games during the season. Three times it was victorious, and three times defeated.

Football.

TRINITY COLLEGE v. YORKVILLE.

On Saturday afternoon at the cricket ground an exciting football match came off between the Yorkville and Trinity College clubs. The match was played under the Rugby rules and was keenly contested throughout. Yorkville was finally successful in winning one goal, and time was called before a second goal was taken by either team.

CARLTON vs. TORONTO LACROSSE CLUB.

A match was played between the above clubs on Saturday last, on the ground of the latter, and resulted in a victory for the Carltons by three goals to nothing.

The play on both sides was good but more especially on the side of the Carltons, whose forwards played well together and were ably seconded by the half-backs. The dribbling of Luddell was very conspicuous, he several times nearly carrying the ball from one end of the field to the other. The Lacrosse side was weaker than in their former matches, several of their best players being absent, notably their goal keeper.

Curling.

OTTAWA.

At the annual meeting of the Ottawa Curling Club held at the Rink, Albert street, on the 6th inst., the following members were elected office bearers for the coming winter: Allan Gilmour, President; Thos. McKay, 1st Vice-President; Henry Inglis, 2nd Vice-President; James Robertson, 3rd Vice-President; Rev. D. M. Gordon, Chaplain; A. C. Hutchison, and A. W. Ogilvie, representative members; Geo. Hutchison, Secretary Treasurer. Managing Committee—Thos. Gallagher, G. S. Scott, Jas. Birbitt, J. Manuel. From the number of members present and the interest taken, Ottawa bids fair to maintain the title of champions of the Dominion.

DEATH OF VOLGA.

Mr. A. J. Alexander, Woodburn Farm, Spring Station, Ky., has had the misfortune to lose the bay mare Volga, foaled in 1856, by imp. Glencoe, dam by imp. Tranby, which resulted from an injury received to her back, from which she died. Volga was an own sister to the renowned Vandal, and was a moderate performer on the turf. She started five times; walked over for a stake, and won a two-mile heat race at Lexington; in four heats, beating Nannie B., Wax Wing, Charley Morgan, Snowball and Jack Gamble, in 3:50, 3:50, 3:50, 3:46, 3:49. Nannie B. and Charley Morgan ran a dead heat for the first, Nannie B. won the second, and Volga the third and fourth heats. The following is a list of her produce: 1863, brown filly Kurica, by Ruric; 1864, chestnut colt, by imp. Australian; 1865, brown colt Eminence, by Lexington; 1866, chestnut colt, Barney Williams, by Lexington; 1867, chestnut filly Evadne, by Lexington; 1868, missed; 1869, bay filly Jenny McKenny, by Planet; 1870, chestnut filly Alice Mitchell, by Planet; 1871, bay filly Valaine, by Lexington; 1872, brown filly Invoice, by Lexington; 1873, chestnut filly Tecalco, by imp. Glen Athol. Barney Williams was the best of her get.

SMALL SHOT.

TOURNAMENT.—Mr. W. Crosthwaite of Stratford, is making arrangements for a grand pigeon shooting tournament, to be held on the Driving Park in that town, on New Year's Day, when suitable prizes will be offered for competition.

The river below Niagara Falls has afforded some good duck shooting lately, more ducks having gone over the Falls during the past few days than usual at this time of the year.

Some men are always lucky. A hunter of Braunard, Minn., while out in the woods, recently discharged his gun to clear out his barrel, and, unknown to him, a fine buck happened to be within range, and was shot through the heart.

WILD GESE.—On Saturday morning Mr. Thomas Jones, residing in Saltfleet, shot four wild geese, and brought three of them to Hamilton market. The flock consisted of four birds and Mr. Jones succeeded in bagging the lot.

Around St. Thomas game is plentiful in the woods just now, and lots of sportsmen, many of them from the States, have been scouring the bush lands of the adjoining townships in their eager pursuit. Great numbers of black squirrels have been bagged, and a few wild turkeys, partridges and ducks.

Gray eyed men make the best sportsmen; amber eyed men make the best musicians; hazel eyed men make the sharpest critics; blue eyed men make the warmest poets; red haired people make the best billiard players; brown haired the best cooks. A hair in a restaurant hash is always dark brown, and just eight inches long.

For several days past a large wild turkey, shot near Chatham, has been exposed for sale in Mr. Smallwood's stall in the Hamilton market. The bird is one of the largest seen for some time, and weighs over twenty-nine pounds. On Saturday afternoon it was purchased, and the same evening presented to Mr. Campbell, contractor and builder, by a number of his friends.

Mr. A. Dulmage of Belleville, agent for the Hudson's Bay Company, and a most genial and whole-souled sportsman, lately captured the largest speckled trout ever heard of in that part of the country. The fish in question was taken by Mr. Dulmage when trouting in a lake about 100 miles north of that town and weighed—do not start—187 lbs., after being cleaned and gutted. This I can vouch for, having seen the beauty myself, and dined off some of his smaller companions, which, with many partridges and some ducks, formed part of the spoil brought to town by the genial "Al." So says the correspondent of the N. Y. Sportsman.

Mr. J. W. Korr, local fishery overseer at Hamilton is issuing licenses to spear herring in Burlington Bay up to the 15th prox.

The Kennel.

Among the exhibitors at the Centennial we find Mr. L. H. Smith, of Strathroy, Ont., has received international awards for the following canine stock shown there:—

L. H. Smith, Strathroy, Ont., imported English setter dog Leicester; imported English setter dog Le-wellen; imported English setter dog, Paris; imported English setter dog.

GREAT EASTERN.—This noted trotting gelding has returned to Rome, N. Y., to winter. His owner, Mr. Geo. Hammill, says that the report that he had sold the horse, is unfounded. The owner of Smuggler declined another race this season.

it, but a warm personal friend possessed of rare social qualities, a genial, generous disposition, and a manner peculiarly pleasing and attractive. His death will be sincerely mourned by many beside those who were his immediate associates in the dramatic profession. Edwin Adams was born in Medford, Mass., in 1834. When nineteen years of age he made his debut in Boston, and for several years thereafter played light comedy characters. Developing a taste and decided talent for tragedy, he gradually grew into that line, and made a decided hit in it. In '69-70, he played with Edwin Booth in New York, dividing the honors of the season with him. As Hamlet, he had few equals and there are very many good critics who grant him superiority to Booth in this role. His last appearance in Toronto, was in December '75, when he played a week under the management of Mrs. Morrison, at the Grand Opera House, as Hamlet, Enoch Arden, the Rover, and other characters. As an actor he was great, as a man he was good, and as a friend there was none to equal him.

DEATH OF A NOTED SINGER.

The death of Ossian E. Dodge is announced from London. Mr. Dodge was born in Cayuga, N. Y., in October, 1820. In early life he taught a musical school in Massachusetts, and was for some time engaged in the show business with a man named Covert. On the first appearance of Jenny Lind in Boston he made himself somewhat notorious by paying $625 for a single seat ticket. In 1861 he went to London as a delegate to the World's Peace Convention. In literary and journalistic circles he made many friends, his sketches on Palestine, Egypt and Assyria, over the nom de plume of "Ivan Ort," having attracted much attention in Europe. He was noted as an excellent writer of comic songs.

Pedestrianism.

FEMALE PEDESTRIANS.

The walking match in New York, between Miss Von Hillern and Miss Marshall, closed at 1:20 o'clock Saturday morning. The pedestrians started last Sunday night to walk six days for $500 a side. The race was won by Miss Hillern, who had walked 325 1/2 miles. Miss Marshall withdrew at eleven o'clock having walked 283 miles.

A SPIN AT OTTAWA.

After the mile dash horse race at Ottawa, on the eighth inst., was over, the crowd got up a foot race, which was prolific of much fun. It was for a purse, and the competitors were Laselle and Walsh. After both men had been upset on the course several times by the crowd, Walsh rolled in an uncertain sort of a way and won the prize.

THE CANADIAN NIGHTINGALE.

At the Bristol (England) musical festival Mlle. Albani achieved a wonderful success, as may be seen from the following extract from the correspondence of the London Telegraph: "The second part of 'Elijah' opened with 'Hear ye, Israel,' the loveliest soprano air, by Mlle. Albani, who achieved the most signal triumph of the day, her graceful, spirited and melodious reading of the air penetrating to the remotest corners of the vast hall. It was manifest that the audience with difficulty checked the disposition to renew the vehement applause which marked her entrance to the orchestra."

A cruel hoax was perpetrated in Montreal on Monday upon several young ladies and gents by invitation cards having been sent them to attend a concert by amateur Canadians in Mechanics' Hall. Each ticket was marked "complimentary," and as the holders returned downstairs they vowed vengeance upon some party whom they suspected to be near by enjoying their disappointment under cover.

PIPING CHALLENGE.

The following letter, signed by Henry Ross, of Lucknow, has been addressed to the Hamilton Spectator:—"On the 10th of last September I challenged Mr. Sullivan Ross of Zorra, or Harrington, through the columns of the Spectator, to play general bagpipe music with me for $100 a side, the contest to take place within six weeks of that date in any central place in Ontario. Mr. Sullivan Ross replied through the same medium, on the 27th of the same month, that he would play me for $50 to $1,000 a side, the contest to take place as above, between that date and Christmas. As I consider his offer intended for a bluff, to test the matter I now repeat my original challenge to play for $100 a side, with an additional $50 to defray the expenses of judging, etc., the contest to take place in the city of Hamilton, on the 30th of this month. I name the city of Hamilton because it is about equidistant from both and away from the circle of our acquaintances, as well as because the accommodation of a hall is better than in any small village. I will select one judge, he to select another, and these two to name the third. If Sullivan Ross has the manliness to meet me on the above terms to test his ability, I am then prepared to accept his challenge as soon thereafter as he chooses. I place the matter in the hands of Chief McCraunon, of the Lucknow Society, to act on my behalf."

TOM ALLEN IN LIMBO.

It will be remembered that Tom Allen, the prize fighter, was arrested by the Kentucky authorities immediately after his fight with Goss, and held in jail in the sum of $3,000 for his appearance the 20th of this month to stand trial for violating the laws of that Commonwealth by engaging in a prize fight. His bondsmen were the Farrell brothers, secured by Pat Murphy, of No. 55 Sycamore street, out giving good wind of Allen's intention to give them the slip and send for Australia, put detective Larry, Hazen and Charley Wappenstein on his track, and he was overhauled in Chicago on Friday last. His choice, Jim Mace, Barney Aaron and Mike McDonald, tried hard to rescue him, but the detectives managed to get him to the office of the Chief of Police, and then before the Police Judge, who put him under bonds in the sum of $1,000 as a fugitive from justice to answer to the State of Kentucky. An effort was then made to procure his release on a writ of habeas corpus, but it was unsuccessful. In the meantime one of the Farrell brothers went to Frankfort to procure a requisition from the Governor of Kentucky, and he is now on his way to Chicago, and upon that authority Allen will be brought here and at once transferred to the Kentucky authorities, to be dealt with according to law.—Cincinnati Commercial.

DEATH OF MONTGOMERY.—The trotting stallion Montgomery, by Rysdyk's Hamblotian, owned by Gov. Hartranft, of Pennsylvania, died last week. Gov. H. had lately refused $5,000 for him.
