WHAT BECAME OF ALICE'S

"'Twasn't Jesus that got my penny," said little Alice, after her first visit to Sunday-school. "We all sang:

'Hear the pennies dropping,
Listen while they fall;
Every one for Jesus,
He will get them all.'

But he didn't, mother, 'cause I saw a lady come and carry 'em off in a box."

But it was a great comfort when mother explained it all to her: that the pennies did not have to go up to heaven; but that the Lord Jesus saw each one, and watched over it while it went on its way to teach some little children about him.

It is better to be good than to be quick to learn. We admire bright children, but we love good ones. If you are intelligent, you should also be good.
