

108796

SUNDAY SCHOOL GUARDIAN.

"ALL THY CHILDREN SHALL BE TAUGHT OF THE LORD."

VOL. IV. TORONTO, C. W., SEPTEMBER, 1849. No. 5.

DEATH OF A SUPERINTENDENT.

Since the issue of our last number, many persons have died in this City. Several children connected with our Sabbath Schools have also gone into another world. We trust that the instructions they received prepared them for the change through which they have passed. Among the many individuals who have died of cholera, was the Superintendent of the Wesleyan Sabbath School, Adelaide Street. An excellent obituary of Mr. Parry, written by a Teacher and member of Mr. P.'s class, has appeared in the Christian Guardian. Its length prevents its insertion here; but we take from the notice the following interesting particulars:—

"The subject of the following obituary was a pious and useful member of the Wesleyan Methodist Society of Toronto, in connection with the Adelaide Street Church, and held the two-fold office of Class-Leader and Superintendent of Sabbath School, in both of which spheres of action he laboured faithfully. He was particularly adapted for Sabbath School work, not only on account of his piety and humility, but also on account of the peculiar faculty he possessed of endearing himself to children, and gaining their attention and respect. Always punctual in his place at the School, and kind and affectionate to his fellow-labourers and the scholars under his care, he won the esteem of both.

Mr. Henry Parry was born on the 26th day of May, in the year 1806, at Manchester, England. Until he had attained the age of twenty-two years, his life was spent in the pursuit of vanity, and all his time and energy were devoted to worldly pleasures. Under a discourse delivered by the Rev. Peter McOwen, a Wesleyan Minister, he saw more clearly the mass of corruption contained in his soul, and was convinced of his entire dependence upon God for mercy. He took refuge in the name of Jesus, and sought earnestly for salvation. God, having tried the sincerity of his petitions and tears, graciously gave him the witness of the Spirit, that all his transgressions were pardoned.—He then united with the Methodist Society, and was appointed a teacher in the London Road District School, in his native city, in which capacity he became eminently useful and successful.

While in connection with this School, he faithfully worked for the glory of that God who had so benignly brought him from darkness to light; and it was not