

Obituary.

OVERHOLT.—In Gainsboro township, near Wellandport, Alice Mildred Comfort, beloved wife of David Overholt, departed this life June 25, 1896, age 32 years, 7 months and 8 days. She leaves a husband and two small boys to mourn her loss; also a father, mother, three brothers and one sister. They have the sympathy of the church and community. Two sisters have gone on before. The departed sister, her husband, father, mother, brother and three sisters all obeyed the Gospel the same time under Bro. O. G. Hertzog's preaching fifteen years ago. Bro. H. M. Evans, of Beamsville, conducted the funeral service on Saturday, June 28, at her late home. E. M.

A Preacher of Self-Sacrifice.

While worshipping in a Methodist church in a country town, I often heard "Great Guns" preach, especially when money was wanted. I was much amused at hearing one divine preach on self-sacrifice, while he was dressed in finest broad-cloth and had a superfluity of jewelry, gold-rimmed eyeglasses and a massive gold watch and chain, diamond pin, and gold cuff-links which he seemed glad to show while making gestures. He told how a Christian woman laid her watch on the altar as a gift to the cause for which he was preaching, namely, Educational Fund. The writer thought: "Go thou and do likewise." The inconsistency seemed very much like the Romish priest who took the poor widow's last cow to release her husband from purgatory. C. G.

An Operation Avoided.

A SMITH'S FALLS CASE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE.

Erysipelas in the Face Develops Into a Running Sore—Doctors Declared That only an Operation Could Bring Relief—A Medicine Found Which Made the Painful Operation Unnecessary.

From the Smith's Falls Record.

A famous German medical scientist once remarked that the world is full of men and women who are sick because of their scepticism. The wisdom of this remark was never more self-evident than it is to-day. There are countless scores of sufferers who would rather suffer than use any medicine not prescribed by their favorite doctor. To these people, perhaps, the story of Mr. Thos. E. Phillips, of Smith's Falls, may convey a moral. The following is the story as given by Mr. Phillips to a Record reporter:—"Several years ago I began to fail in weight, lost my appetite and erysipelas started in my face, and then a running sore broke out on my cheek. I consulted three physicians and they all said it would be necessary to remove a portion of the bone. All this time I was unable to do any work and was suffering intense mental and physical agony, when I chanced to read in the Record about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and resolved to try them, thinking they would do me no harm anyway. I had not used one box when I felt they were helping me. I continued, and after taking eight boxes the running sore on my cheek completely healed and the operation the doctors said was necessary was avoided. I regained my weight and am once more possessing a good appetite. In fact I was made a new man, so remarkable was the change. We now consider Pink Pills a household necessity." Mr. Phillips was a respectable and well-to-do farmer of Wolford township, until last spring, when he sold his farm and is now living a retired life in Smith's Falls. He is about fifty years of age, though looking younger, and a living witness of the wonderful curative properties contained in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This great medical discovery has reached the high position which it holds through the power of its own merits. By its timely use the weak are made strong; pale wan cheeks are given a rosy hue; lost vigor is renewed and the suffering ones are released from pain. If your dealer does not keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, they will be sent by mail on receipt of fifty cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the company at Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Remember that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail, and do not be persuaded to take either a substitute or an imitation.
