JAMES GUNN, Supt.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. J. A. Anderson, of Goderich, preached in St. Andrew's Church, Sarnia, on Sunday week.

Rev. J. W. Mitchell has been holding evangelistic services at Camilla. He is now at Conn.

Rev. James Cattanach, of Centreville, recently addressed the Methodist Sabbath school at Millbrook.

Rev. D. A. Thompson has, by the Presbytery of Peterborough, been appointed its examiner of students for college.

Coligny College, at Ottawa, seems to be in a prosperous state. Fifty-seven lady students registered on the opening day.

The Rev. John Anderson, B.D., is supplying the pulpit of the Rev. Dr. Thomson, Sarnia, during the remainder of his vacation.

Classes were resumed at Queen's University on the 1st inst. It is expected that this year's freshman's class will be a large one.

Children's Day was celebrated appropriately in St. Andrew's Church, Lindsay. Rev. J. W. MacMillan, the pastor, conducted the service.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Eddy were given an enthusiastic welcome on returning to their home in Hull, Que., after a protracted visit to Europe.

The church at Roslin has been undergoing repairs. A lawn social at Thomas Gray's recently was very successful, the proceeds amounting to $20.

The subject of the Rev. John Watson's (Ian MacLaren) lecture in Massey Hall on the 19th inst. will be "Certain Traits of Scottish Character."

The children's service in Knox Church, Guelph, was conducted by Rev. James Sieve-right, of Huntsville, and Rev. J. Edmison, of Rothsay.

The children's service in the Acton Church was led by the superintendent, Mr. W. McPhail. The offering made by the children amounted to $10.

Rev. G. M. Clarke, of Halifax, former pastor of the New Edinburgh Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, conducted the services in his old church a week ago Sabbath.

Rev. A. Graham, of Lancaster, Ont., has been appointed Moderator of Session during the vacancy at Dalhousie Mills. Only Gaelic-speaking candidates need apply.

The opening lecture in the Lyman-Beecher course at Yale College was given lately by the Rev. Dr. Watson (Ian MacLaren), of Liverpool, to a very large audience.

A birthday social was held by the Christian Endeavor Society of the church at Westport at the home of Mr. D. G. Kipley. Sixteen dollars were thus added to the funds.

Rev. James Fitzpatrick, of Underwood, conducted the preparatory service at Port Egin, which was followed by a largely attended communion on the succeeding Sabbath.

Rev. A. S. Mowatt a week ago Sunday marked the second anniversary of the occupancy of the new Erskine Church, Montreal, by preaching a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

The Rev. Alex. Mackay, D.D., will conduct the monthly Gaelic service next Sabbath in Knox Church at 3 p.m. All who understand that language are cordially invited to attend.

At a recent meeting of the Presbyterian Council in London, presided over by Rev. M. P. Talling, both Rev. Robert Johnston and Rev. W. J. Clark gave descriptions of their summer tours in Europe.

Mr. J. J. Patterson recently delivered a farewell sermon to the people of Alberton, over whom he has been presiding for some time, preparatory to returning to Knox College to take up his final year's work.

Rev. Robert Campbell, D.Sc., of Renfrew, has been nominated by the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew for the position of Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

At the recent Sunday School convention of Northumberland County, Revs. A. K. McLeod, of Brighton; R. Laird, of Campbellford; J. Hay, of Cobourg, and P. Duncan, of Colbourne, contributed to the programme.

Rev. Mungo Fraser, D.D., has returned to Hamilton, after having travelled for six months in Europe. He is looking vigorous and healthy. His congregation gave him a formal welcome of a most enthusiastic character.

Mr. J. Parnell Morris, who has been the efficient choir-master and organist of St. Andrew's Church, Lindsay, for some time, has resigned to accept the position of musical instructor in the Ontario Institute for the Blind at Brantford.

Rev. T. A. Bell, of Avonbank, has received a unanimous call from the Presbyterian congregations of Napier and Brooke, in the Presbytery of Sarnia. Mr. Bell is a recent graduate of Knox College, and is one of the ablest young ministers in that district.

Miss Sinclair, a returned missionary from India, whose faithfulness has been so full of profit and interest in connection with mission work in India, left Toronto after a brief visit, and sailed for London on the 3rd inst., from whence after a short stay she will sail to her distant field.

The Harvest Home service of the Horning's Mills congregation was conducted by Rev. William J. West, of Woodstock, who, after graduating from Knox College, has just completed a year's study in Europe. Rev. A. E. Nelly, the pastor, is to be congratulated upon the success of his labors.

Sabbath, September 13th, was communion day in Bristol, Que. 254 communicants were present. 14 new members were added to the roll, making forty-six in all for the year, the largest increase in any one year of the present pastorate. This congregation intends celebrating its jubilee in November.

The Christian Endeavor Union of Ontario County, was held last week in Knox Church, Beaverton. There are now sixty societies connected with the Union, having 888 active, and 562 associate members. At one of the evening sessions, Rev. W. J. McMillan, of Lindsay, spoke instructively on "The Endowment of Youth for Service."

Those interested in the Sabbath school at Normanby, directed by Mrs. James Watson, gave a pleasant entertainment recently. Rev. Mr. McVicar was in the chair, and short addresses were delivered by Messrs Jno. Kerr and Wm. Allan. A feature of the evening was the showing of a number of stereopticon views which gave pleasure. The proceeds amounted to $10.70, which will be spent in prizes.

Rev. G. C. Patterson, M.A., Knox Church, Embro, has resumed his pastoral duties after an absence of nearly three months in Europe, which was very greatly enjoyed by both himself and Mrs. Patterson. They received a most cordial welcome from the congregation on the Friday evening after their return. The lecture-room of the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a very enjoyable season was spent.

The First Presbyterian Church, Vancouver, has given a call to the well-known evangelist of our Church, the Rev. Mr. Meikle, and he with Mrs. Meikle and family have gone west to his new field of labor. This is the congregation of which Rev. G. N. Maxwell, M.P., was formerly pastor. There is in British Columbia a large field and pressing need for men like Mr. Meikle and we wish him abundant success in his new sphere of work.

At the last meeting of the Presbytery of Guelph Rev. Dr. Dickson reported from the committee appointed to arrange for Dr. Torrance's jubilee, giving an order of services for the occasion and recommending that as the date of the jubilee falls on Wednesday, the 11th November, the next regular meeting of Presbytery be on that day instead of on the third Tuesday of that month, and that the place of meeting be Chalmers Church. To this the Presbytery agreed.

At the inaugural meeting of a Young People's Home Missionary Society in the King Street Church, London, these officers were elected: Honorary president, Rev. Thos. Wilson (pastor); president, Miss McDermid; first vice-president, Mrs. Thos. Wilson; second vice-president, Mr. Thos. McHattie; recording secretary, James McKay; corresponding secretary, Arch. Black; treasurer, Miss M. Black; committee of six, Messrs. A. Seijohn, D. H. McKay, A. Marriot, and Misses L. Parkins, J. McHarg and J. Maxwell.

"Conscientious Doubt" is the subject of a series of eight lectures announced to be given in St. James Square Church, of this city, by the pastor the Rev. Louis H. Jordan, M.A., B.D. They will be delivered on eight consecutive Sabbath evenings beginning with next Sunday, 11th inst. In these lectures "Doubt" in several of its many phases will be somewhat fully discussed, and the careful treatment which this subject will receive at Mr. Jordan's hands will be sure to be helpful to all, and they are many, who may have been or are now troubled with religious doubt.

The Rev. John S. Burnet, who for the past twenty-eight years has been pastor of the St. Andrew's Church, Martintown, having resigned his charge, will sail in a few days from Montreal for Scotland, where he will spend the remainder of his life in the peace and quietness of his native hills. A large number of friends from a distance and the clergymen of the neighboring parishes joined the congregation at a farewell meeting held recently in the St. Andrew's Hall, Martintown. The Rev. Mr. Burnet was presented with a purse and valuable memorials were also presented to Mrs. Burnet and Miss Ness.

A farewell meeting, largely attended, was held in the Queen Street East Presbyterian Church, Toronto, on the evening of 2nd inst. Rev. Mr. Frizzell presided. Addresses were delivered by the two young ladies, Miss E. Hall and Miss Emma Passmore, who are about to leave for the China Inland Mission field; Rev. F. A. Stevens, secretary of the China Inland Mission; Rev. J. McP. Scott, and Miss Kay, of London, England, who is at present on her way to China. Miss Hall and Miss Passmore were each presented with a handsome dressing case. Miss Hall also received a purse of money from the congregation, and a fine silver watch from her Bible class.

The Rev. Walter M. Roger, M.A., of North Pelham, Ontario, whose aid in special evangelistic services has already been called for and enjoyed by many of our ministers, was at the last meeting of Hamilton Presbytery released from his pastoral charge that he might, as has long been his desire, devote himself wholly to the service of the Church in evangelistic work. He leaves an attached people to engage in this department of labour in the Church at what he feels to be the call of duty, and as affording him the largest sphere of usefulness. His pastorate closes on October 31st and from that date his services will be available for his chosen field of work.

At the residence of the Rev. J. A. Turnbull 316 Bathurst Street, Toronto, the officers and teachers of the West Toronto Church met to make a presentation to the faithful and beloved superintendent of the Sabbath School, Mr. Robert S. Gourlay, who has held that position for many years and now for various reasons finds himself unable longer to discharge the duties of so responsible an office. Many expressions of love and appreciation of his valuable services were given in addition to the presentation made. Mr. Gourlay replied in suitable terms, assuring the teachers of his continued interest in the school and wishing them Godspeed in their work of faith and labor of love.

Sadly and tenderly, surrounded by a large assemblage of mourning friends, the mortal remains of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Torrance were lowered to their last resting place in a single grave in the cemetery at Woodstock. At the old homestead, "Kynle Glen," in the same room in which three years before the two were made husband and wife, a short service had previously been held. Rev. Dr. McMullen spoke sympathetically, and was followed by Mr. T. J. Reid, a fellow-student of Mr. Torrance's at Knox College, who paid a high tribute to the departed brother. The casket containing the remains of Mr. Torrance was then borne forth by Dr. Rice, Messrs. W. C. McLeod, J. G. Wallace, Andrew Pattullo, M.P.P., W. G. Clarke and Prof. McKeechine, followed by that of Mrs. Torrance, borne by Dr. A. M. Clarke, Messrs. James Canfield, W. T. McMullen, T. A. McCleneghan, W. S. McLay and E. W. Nesbitt.

The first meeting of the Presbyterian Society of Christian Endeavor in connection with Home Presbytery has been held. Rev. J. A. Ross, of Churchill, presided at the afternoon session during which Rev. W. R. McIntosh, Rev. D. D. McLeod and Mr. J. A. Mather made addresses. The evening meeting was presided over by Rev. J. Leishman, Angus, Rev. R. N. Grant, D.D., of Orillia, gave an admirable address, the subject treated being subsequently discussed by Rev. J. Ross, of Churchill, and Rev. Mr. McAdam, of North Bay, Rev. Dr. McCrae, of Collingwood, was unavoidably absent and his subject was taken on short notice by Rev. Dr. James, of Midland; Mr. C. J. Miller, of Orillia, and Rev. R. Pogue, of Stayner, also spoke. The election of officers resulted as follows:—President, Rev. J. Skene, Hilldale; vice-presidents, J. A. Mather, New Lowell; treasurer, Miss Anderson, Ken Church, Flos; corresponding secretary, Miss Wilson, Newton Robinson; recording secretary, Miss Thomas, Tottenham.

Exhaustion

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

Overworked men and women, the nervous, weak and debilitated, will find in the Acid Phosphate a most agreeable, grateful and harmless stimulant, giving renewed strength and vigor to the entire system.

Dr. Edwin F. Vose, Portland, Me., says: "I have used it in my own case when suffering from nervous exhaustion, with gratifying results. I have prescribed it for many of the various forms of nervous debility, and it has never failed to do good."
