

fat. We cannot refrain from adding that, if this regulation compelling immigrants to be in possession of five pounds had always been in force, many of those now in Canada would not be here or anywhere else.

In this attempt to manufacture expression which it is proposed to place before the reading public of England as "the consensus of Canadian opinion," we hope the immigration authorities will not omit to include this opinion which is expressed by the Montreal Medical Journal, even if they are disappointed in our response to their lead, or do not like this dance to their piping. If they do forget, we shall take the proper steps to remedy the omission.

(We agree with the writer, and compliment him on the stand taken.—Editor.)
