BAULISO—"How did you manage to get through that crowd? I had to wait for half an hour."

CUMSO—"I was smoking that cigar you gave me."—Life.

If you want anything done, do it yourself—that is, if you can't get somebody else to do it. —N. Y. Sunday Times.

THE SAMPLE BOOK.

It is a fact that a great deal of study is now being put upon the advertising pages of our leading periodicals. Experts write advertisements, the best artists design illustrations, and it is a matter of considerable interest, therefore, when one of the leading advertising firms of the country announce that they have published a sample book, in which they show 200 or more different advertisements they have written and designed for their customers. Alden & Faxon, Cincinnati, Ohio, well known in the advertising field, have just published a book with this title, and will send it on receipt of six cents in stamps. The collection is quite unique and shows what versatility there is in the American mind, regarding the wants and necessities of people who read newspapers. In addition to the advertisements, information and hints are given to advertisers, whether they are old and experienced, or whether they are just starting on the road to fame and fortune, with the newspapers as their capital.

AN Italian journalist tells his countrymen that they can make their fortune by simply going to America, work as laborers until they have saved $400, and then return to Italy, buy a title, and again go to America and marry an heiress. Quite a number of Italians have apparently adopted this plan, but we didn't suppose titles were so expensive in Italy. —Norristown Herald.

JOHN LABATT,

LONDON, ONT.

Received the highest awards for purity and excellence at Philadelphia, 1876; Canada, 1876; Austria, 1877; and Paris, 1878. Rev. P. J. Ed. Page, Professor of Chemistry, Laval University, Que., says: "I have analyzed the India Pale Ale manufactured by John Labatt, London, Ont., and have found it a light ale containing but little alcohol, of a very agreeable taste and superior quality, and compares with the best imported ales. I have also analyzed the Porter XXX Stout of the same Brewery, which is of an excellent quality; its flavor is very agreeable. It is a tonic more energetic than the above Ale, for it is a little richer in alcohol, and can be compared advantageously with any imported article. James Good & Co., Agents, Toronto.
