

United Nations Juridical Yearbook

In 1959 the General Assembly adopted a resolution stating that a United Nations juridical yearbook which would include documentary materials of a legal character relating to the United Nations should be published.

At its fifteenth session, the General Assembly, decided to place the question of the publication of a United Nations juridical yearbook on the provisional agenda of its seventeenth session and invited member states to submit to the Secretary-General written comments or observations on the form and contents of the proposed yearbook not later than June 1, 1962.
