or airlines of the other Contracting Party or of the third countries involved.

ARTICLE XV

1.   The designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party shall be allowed, on the basis of reciprocity, to maintain in the territory of the other Contracting Party their representatives and commercial, operational and technical staff as required in connection with the operation of agreed services.

2.   These staff requirements may, at the option of the designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party, be satisfied by its own personnel or by using the services of any other organization, company or airline operating in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and authorized to perform such services in the territory of that Contracting Party.

3.   The representatives and staff shall be subject to the laws and regulations in force of the other Contracting Party, and consistent with such laws and regulations, each Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity and with the minimum of delay, grant the necessary employment authorizations, visitors visas or other similar documents to the representatives and staff referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

4.   Both Contracting Parties shall dispense with the requirement of employment authorizations for personnel performing certain temporary duties not exceeding ninety (90) days.

ARTICLE XVI

Each designated airline shall have the right to engage in the sale of air transportation in the territory of the other Contracting Party directly and, at its discretion, through its agents. Each designated airline shall have the right to sell such transportation, and any person shall be free to purchase such transportation in the currency of that territory or in freely convertible currencies of other countries, subject to relevant national laws and regulations.

ARTICLE XVII

Each Contracting Party shall grant to the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party the right of transfer of excess of receipts over expenditure earned by the airlines in the territory of the First
