BANK ACT

DECENNIAL REVISION AND EXTENSION OF CHARTERS

The house in committee on Bill No. C-222, respecting banks and banking—Mr. Sharp—Mr. Batten in the chair.

The Chairman: Order. This bill was reprinted as amended by the standing committee on finance, trade and economic affairs. I understand that the reprinted bill has been distributed to members of the committee.

On clause 2—Definitions.

Mr. Sharp: Mr. Chairman, we are now in what I hope are the final stages of the long legislative history of this bill to amend the Bank Act, a history which began when my colleague, the senior Minister without Portfolio, introduced a bill in the 1965 session, and perhaps the greatest compliment I can pay to him at this time is to say that the essential principles that he laid down in that bill have been retained.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear.

Mr. Sharp: Mr. Chairman, I rise mainly for the purpose of congratulating the members of
