Mr. Knowles: Mr. Speaker, I wanted to ask a question about Monday's business. I thought that you were calling it five o'clock.

[Translation]

Mr. Lachance: Mr. Speaker, with leave, I would like to call it 5.15 o'clock.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Knowles: Mr. Speaker, may I ask if there is someone left over there who can tell us what the menu will be on Monday?

[Translation]

Mr. Lachance: Here I am again, Mr. Speaker. I could say to the hon. House leader of the New Democratic Party (Mr. Knowles) that, in principle, we will continue Committee of the Business of the House

Whole consideration of Bill C-19, to amend the Employment Tax Credit Act.

[English]

Mr. Knowles: May I ask the parliamentary secretary a supplementary question? Does the failure of the parliamentary secretary to mention the closure debate for Monday mean that the government has dropped that ridiculous idea?

[Translation]

Mr. Lachance: Since the hon. member insists, I can tell him that it is possible, if not probable, that the motion will be introduced on Monday.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Order. The hour provided for the consideration of private members' business has now expired.

It being 5.15 p.m. pursuant to Standing Order 2(1) the House stands adjourned until Monday next at 2 p.m.

At 5.15 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
