Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., LL.D., Montreal.

Dear Sir:-

You will have noted by the Minutes of Meeting of Governors on 10th inst., recently sent you, that the consideration of three applications for Scholarships was referred to the Scholarship and Law Committee of which you are Convener and the Rev. Dr. Paterson Smyth and Mr. James M. Macdonnell are the other Members.

Mr. Macdonnell kindly undertook to confer with you as to the calling of a Meeting which, as ¹⁰⁰⁰suggested, should await the return of the Rev. Mr. Donald, who has been instrumental in obtaining the continuance of Miss Dow's donation for Scholarships. I am informed that Mr. Donald is sailing to-day, and he may therefore, be expected to arrive by the end of next week.

Faithfully yours,

A. F. Riddeell
 Secretary
