

Only 150 Copies Printed.

In One Magnificent Double Super-Royal Folio Volume, Half-Morocco. Printed on Finest Plate Paper.

Scotland Sixty Years Ago :

A SERIES OF
THIRTY-TWO FINE COPPERPLATE ETCHINGS
OF THE
CHIEF TOWNS OF SCOTLAND
AND THEIR SURROUNDINGS.

Crown 8vo, cloth, 5s. ; Large Paper, 7s. 6d.

Poems and Lyrics, by Robert Nicoll, WITH A MEMOIR OF THE AUTHOR.

"He has attained a mastery over English, a simplicity and quiet, which Burns never did ; and also, we need not say, a moral purity."—Charles Kingsley.

" . . . The poems are still fresh and sweet ; and the story of the young poet's life is worth a hundred common novels in point of authentic interest."—Glasgow Herald.

" . . . The story of NICOLL's life is one of the most touching in the annals of biography."—Leeds Mercury.

" . . . The life is full of interest and the poems are full of beauty. . . ."—Scotsman.

360 pp., Crown 8vo. Cloth. Price 7s. 6d. WITH PORTRAIT.

Wit, Wisdom, and Pathos, from the Prose of Heinrich Heine,

WITH A FEW PIECES FROM THE "BOOK OF SONGS."

Selected and Translated by J. SNODGRASS.