

CHAPTER VII

MISSIONARY LIFE AT SANDY LAKE. (I) A REMINISCENCE	PAGE
OF MY MISSIONARY WORK - - - - -	129

Message to the Indians from the Canadian Government. The Author is ordained Deacon—First Baptisms—A Journey to Winnipeg—A Perilous Ford—Bogged in a Quagmire—The Author Marries—A Trying Honeymoon—Treaty with the Indians—Family Life among the Indians—Their Sobriety—Effect of the Treaty on Missionary Work—Building of a School and Church at Sandy Lake—Peter Ka-Ka-soo—Effect of the Turko-Russian War on the Indians.

CHAPTER VIII

MISSIONARY LIFE AT SANDY LAKE (continued) - - -	158
--	-----

Difficulties Due to Polygamy—The Author as a Matrimonial Agent—School Work—The Teaching of Geography—A Heavy Load and how it was Carried by Two Indians—Primitive Farming Methods—A New Dwelling-house—Making a Black-board—St. Mark's Church, Sandy Lake—The Bishop's Account of the Mission in 1881—First Use of the Name Assisippi—The Trouble at Snake Plain—A Visit to England—Mrs. Hines' Share in the Work of the Mission—A Heterogeneous Offertory.

CHAPTER IX

THE REBELLION OF 1885 - - - - -	194
---------------------------------	-----

Sad News—Louis Riel—Causes of Unrest—A Petition to Ottawa—Riel and the Eclipse of the Sun—