AT LOUISVILLE.
LOUISVILLE, Oct. 1.—John Gund easily drew away from his field in the mile and eighth handicap that furnished the feature of the day's card at Douglas Park this afternoon, and won handsily. The race furnished the best event of the day and also the other races were keenly contested, the fields were made up of cheap horses for the most part.

John Gund ruled a 9 to 20 favorite in the betting and his victory, together with that of Bill Dudley at 7 to 6, proved the only successes of the afternoon for the followers of form. The worst blow for these latter layers came with the running of the first and second races. In the first race, the Norman failed to finish inside the money, while in the next event it was Expectation who dashed the hopes of her backers to earth. In each case the general public were heavy backers. Mose Goldblatt's Othello upset calculations in the opening number by sticking it out for six furlongs.

Two other favorites were beaten by a nose. One step in the third race and Bonnie Chance in the last were the unlucky horses in question. Jockey Johnny Loftus accepted his first mount today since he returned from France. He had managed to reduce his weight to 112 pounds. The first prize was won by Bill Dudley at 7 to 6, proved the only successes of the afternoon for the followers of form. JACK FLEMING'S GARDENERS
WON McCormick Prize.

His Team Had the Best Flower Bed This Year.

The Parks Playground Gardens this year at McCormick Recreation Centre have been a sight worth going to see. Each bed has been taken care of by three boys or girls. The first prize went this year to the same leader as last, Jack Fleming. The next two prizes went to the girls. St. Andrew's playground made the first attempt at flower beds this year and from the interest taken in the five plots first prize should show three times as many.

Prize winners at McCormick: 1. Jack Fleming, B. Burkinshaw, Phillips; 2. Mary Lander, Ella Stratt; Florence Hayes; 3. Lillian Gray, Isabel Clark, Hayd Portch.

St. Andrew's winners: Bertha Rashkoffsky, Neesha Zosky, Rosie Weinstock, Ida Rashkoffsky.

MISSION NEEDS FUNDS.

H. L. Stark, treasurer of the Toronto City Mission, makes an urgent appeal for funds to help carry on the work. The extra stress has now almost exhausted the small reserve of the mission. Over $1000 was expended on relief work during the past four months, while 2116 articles of clothing and furniture were supplied. At the Fresh Air Home at Bronte 254 children and 185 mothers enjoyed two weeks' holiday.

Have a "Regal Snack" To-night

Crisp crackers, or thin bread and butter, tasty cheese—say olives or celery—and a bottle of Regal Lager! There's a delicious bed-time snack, that will take the blood from your head to your stomach, and give you sound, healthful sleep. The delightful tonic smell of the hops, and the snappy flavor of Regal are tributes to the high quality and purity of its ingredients. Have a case sent home to-day.
