

MURDER TALE TOLD IN OSGOOD HALL

Strange Case Recalled by Judgment of Chief Justice
Meredith.

SEVENTEEN CASES

Large Number of Appeals
Were Dismissed at Osgoode Hall Yesterday.

On of fourteen appeals adjudicated at Osgoode Hall yesterday eleven were dismissed. The appeal of Mrs. Hodge against the estate of her husband, James Hodge, was allowed by Chief Justice Meredith. The defendant, a farmer named Hodge, was held entitled to regain possession of a farm which had been sold to a man named Leith Johnston, who represented himself as having a power of attorney from Isabella Margarette Gilchrist, the original owner of the property and a sister of Mrs. Hodge. It is held that the power of attorney, which was limited to Alaska, where it was granted, and the purchaser therefore loses the farm. It goes now to Miss Gilchrist's sister, Mrs. Hodge, as her executrix.

The last heard of the owner of the farm, Miss Gilchrist, was in October, 1908. In December, 1908, Johnston appeared in court and sold the property, stating that the owner had become his wife. In July, 1908, Johnston was arrested, charged with the murder of Miss Gilchrist in Nome. He told the police a story of how she had died, and he had buried her body in the cabin in which they lived. By his own confession, he later sold the cabin, removed the body, cut it up, poured oil over it and burned it. On his way from Nome, where he was arrested, to Alaska, he mysteriously disappeared.

Marriage Invalid.
Yesterday the farmer who came into possession of the farm was having trouble with the dead woman's sister. His claim that the plaintiff could not succeed in her action to recover the property because the will under which her claim was made was made before the marriage to Johnston. The court now, however, holds that the will was already married when he pretended to have married Miss Gilchrist, and that therefore the marriage being invalid the will in Mrs. Hodge's favor must stand.

Mr. Justice Lathford awarded the

WHITE AS A GHOST

Pale or Sallow Cheeks One of the First Signs of Anæmia.

Pale and sallow cheeks, with blanching of lips and gums and dark circles under the eyes are the first signs that anæmia is beginning to develop. This first warning is followed by great weakness and breathlessness after any exertion. You grow melancholy, have frequent headaches, awake in the morning feeling tired. You become nervous and nervous, starting at the slightest noise, and your heart palpitates violently even on going upstairs. Most girls from fourteen to twenty suffer from anæmia. Neglect to supply new blood to the languishing, bloodless body means a life of misery indeed. It is an open invitation to the most hopeless of all diseases, consumption.

The new, rich blood that cures anæmia and gives new health and strength is readily created by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. That is why these pills have cured more cases of bloodlessness and blood disorders than any other medicine. They have made thousands of girls and women strong, well and happy, with bright eyes and new energy, because they nourish the body with the new, rich, red blood of health. Here is a typical instance. Mrs. Laura Dempsey, Auburn, N.Y., says: "For several months I was in a very bad state of health, with many of the symptoms that accompany anæmia. I was pale and bloodless, had terrible headaches, would be breathless at the least exertion. Having tried a number of medicines without relief I naturally became discouraged and began to fear that I was doomed to continued illness. At this stage a friend who had herself been benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills urged me to try them. I did so and thanks to the pills I am now enjoying the best of health and feel that I cannot recommend this splendid medicine too highly."

Other weak and ailing girls can obtain new health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or they will be sent by mail postpaid at 50 cents a box of six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Lakeview Consols, Ltd., of London, England, the sum of $15,000 with interest from March, 1911, and costs, against Charles B. Flynn and John Philip Flynn. The sum was paid by the company to the Flynns for the purchase of three mining claims known as Pelton claims in the Porcupine district. It was claimed that the mines had been misrepresented when the plaintiff purchased them.

In the case of Wauchop v. Hobbs, a new trial was ordered. The matter of costs is to be left with the judge then presiding.

The Canada Pine Lumber Company lost its appeal against the judgment entered by the chief justice of the king's bench division in favor of G. McCall, a dealer. McCall sued for the balance of the purchase price of ten cars waney pine lumber and the chief justice awarded him the amount but disallowed the claim made for interest. His lordship at that time also dismissed certain counter claims. This judgment stands.

Mr. Justice Hodgins dismissed the appeal with costs of F. Pickering against the York Railway Company. The case arose on account of injuries received by Pickering when run over by the company's wagon. His action was dismissed and his appeal now refused.

Wasylsynzyn appealed against the decision of Mr. Justice Lathford, who dismissed his damage action for injuries sustained while employed by the Canada Cement Company. The appeal was dismissed with costs.

Injured in a Water Main.
The appeal of N. Conter from the trial judge's decision in his action against the City of Hamilton for damages for injuries due to alleged negligence on the part of the city, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Meredith. Conter was employed by the corporation as a laborer in the waterworks department and received injuries on striking a match in a gas-filled cement chamber of the water main. Costs were allowed.

Chief Justice Meredith dismissed the application of the Ontario and Minnesota Power Company for leave to appeal against the decision of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board dismissing their appeal from the court of revision of the Town of Port Frances. The appeal was based on the ground that the board had no jurisdiction.

In the case of Jackson v. Hawley, in which Jackson appealed against the judgment of the County Court of Toronto, Chief Justice Meredith ordered that the appeal be allowed with costs and substituted for the judgment entered. The action was brought to recover $125, alleged to be due by Jackson to Hawley on the purchase price of 250 cases of eggs, and for damages for the refusal to accept and pay for a further 250 cases. The judge disallowed the claim for $17.86, but gave judgment for Hawley for $33.51 as damages.

Dr. Andrew Hay won his appeal from the judgment of Chief Justice Falconbridge awarding Charles H. Cassan $1200 damages and costs in an action for alleged malpractice. Dr. Hay treated Cassan, who was his friend, for an irritation of the eye, putting in something which the trial judge held to be not cocaine, but some corrosive and caustic substance. Evidence was produced corroborating the doctor's statements that the drug was taken from the cocaine bottle.

Bank Never Started.
The appeal by four subscribers for shares in the Monarch Bank from the judgment of Mr. Justice Middleton, affirming the order of the official referees which placed them on the list of contributories in the winding up of the bank, was dismissed by Mr. Justice MacLaren. The bank was incorporated on July 28, 1908, and not having had enough subscribers, was wound up, and the appellants based their appeal on the grounds that they were never shareholders and consequently could not be contributories.

The following cases are set for hearing in the second appellate divisional court for Monday: Boardley vs. Gagne, Johnston vs. Burrell, Shannon vs. Jones, Mooney vs. Murray, Hay vs. Coste, Shumer vs. Brown.

On Monday a further seventeen judgments will be given out as follows: McLarty vs. Dixon, Duffield vs. Mutual Life Insurance Co., Rundle vs. Trust and Guarantee Co., Coffin vs. Gilles, Winnifith vs. Enkleigh, McCall vs. G. T. R., McDonald vs. Tew, La Fortune vs. Port Arthur, Jones vs. Neill, Spelman vs. Phil, Davis vs. Hudson Bay Mines, Hurst

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Emperor William is described in a letter, received by one of the editors of Patrie, from a certain Captain "M." undergoing treatment at a hospital in the German fortress of Metz, as having visited the French wounded, saying: "I give my imperial homage, gentlemen, to your valor, and notwithstanding the cruel circumstances of the present I do not despair of seeing one-day Germany and France united by ties of sincere friendship."

WILSON OBJECTED TO AERIAL BOMBS

President Conveyed His Sentiments Officially to Belligerent Powers.

Canadian Press Despatch.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—President Wilson has communicated officially to the diplomatic representatives to the United States of belligerent countries of Europe his disapproval of attacks by bombs from aircraft on undefended cities occupied by non-combatants. The president was careful not to take the matter up officially, and did not even make his intimation thru the state department, but personally addressed the American ambassadors abroad. The president took this course, it became known today, nearly two months ago. The facts came to light thru the publication by a report that the president had discussed the matter with European diplomats here. This, however, was denied by some of the prominent diplomatic men in connection with it, including the German ambassador.

MUST BE TRUTHFUL
How an Error in Print Might Destroy Public Faith in a Sale.

"One small typographical error nearly wrecked faith in this quiltless sale of ours at its beginning," said the manager of the Semi-ready Store. "We decided to clear out all our underwear at cost—and we had many thousands dollars' worth in the store and warehouse. We took our Woolsey underwear and cut it to actual cost, sterling, without duty added in some cases, but through some unexplainable cause the price was quoted as $1.45 'the suit' instead of $1.45 the garment. We had enquires from all over Canada, many from merchants who it had not been for our long record of plain price telling the damage to this sale had been irreparable. For to be convincing one must be meticulously careful in stating every fact. And that we have tried to be. Our 'label in the pocket' just complete us to be. We cannot say a $15 suit is worth $30 even if you walk upstairs for it, for the label tells the exact
