The public is aware of the inconvenience, delays, extra expense, and annoying mistakes resulting from the ignorance or want of observance of technical rules by AUTHORS, ADVERTISERS, Compilers of Reports, and all connected with Printing or Publishing in any of the hundred forms demanded by the necessities of the present day.

With the view of obviating in some degree these drawbacks, and to ensure perfect satisfaction between the printer and his customer, Mr. J. N. EMRA SEES THROUGH THE PRESS all the work committed to his care. The "Copy" is prepared, proofs read and revised, and all details scrupulously attended to.

Mr. EMRA especially desires to call attention to the fact that his clients reap the advantage of having their work done at low rates in this manner, the various processes being so much facilitated by professional supervision.

Instructions are called for in any part of the city immediately on receipt of a request at the office, 35 St. Bonaventure Street, Montreal.
