

thinks property qualifications for legislature should be fixed, 373; moves qualifications for legislature to be the same as for State legislatures, 375; on journals of legislature, 380; thinks Senate should participate in money bills, 394; seconds motion to postpone question of money bills, 404; wishes one supreme court, 57; opposes inferior tribunals in national judiciary, 60; opposes revisionary power for judges, 300; objects to power of removal of judges, 473; opposes sending for delegates from New Hampshire, 190; opposes adjournment, 262; thinks provision against domestic violence unnecessary, 281; on committee of detail, 318; delivers report of committee of detail, 337; opposes franchise limited to freeholders, 354; thinks foreigners should not hold office, 386; favors measure to guard funds, 421; moves committee to consider State debts, 421; moves assumption of State debts, 421; moves longer sessions of convention, 423; opposes tax on importation of slaves, 442; insists on slave trade, 446; introduces additions to report, 448; moves constitution be supreme law, 455; opposes negative on State laws, 457; thinks provision for controversies between States unnecessary, 460; would prohibit retrospective laws, 479; would preserve habeas corpus, 477; on committee to consider mutual recognition of public acts by States, 483; favors navigation acts, 486; says States can not be divided without their consent, 490; proposes bankruptcy laws, 502; moves treaties shall require two-thirds of whole Senate, 533; opposes power to amend clause relating to slavery, 540; thinks Congress need not approve constitution, 543; proposes suspension from office of persons impeached, 561; moves Treasurer be appointed by executive, 562; opposes address to the people, 567.

Seat of government, provision for, discussed, 332; jurisdiction over, 420, 512; clause agreed to, 513.

Senate. See Legislature, Senate.

Sberman, Roger, Conn., attends, 27; thinks executive must carry out will of legislature, 38; favors election of executive by legislature,

40, 267; favors three years' term for executive, 40; thinks national legislatures should remove executive at pleasure, 46; proposes executive council, 50; seconds motion for eligibility of executive for second term, 270; opposes tenure during good behavior for executive, 271; objects to election of President by ballot, 461; objects to President's power of appointment, 464; favors eventual election of President from seven candidates, 517; thinks greater powers for Congress necessary, 28; opposes election to first branch of legislature by people, 31; favors election of one member of Senate by each State legislature, 35; seconds motion to elect Senate by State legislatures, 60; thinks proportion of suffrage in first branch should be based on free inhabitants, 84; moves each State should have one vote in second branch, 88; rejected, 89; opposes requiring oaths from members of State governments to observe constitution, 90; moves members of first branch be elected annually, 91; approves five years for Senate term, 95; favors single legislative assembly, 136; prefers election to legislature by State legislatures, 143; accepts biennial elections to first branch of legislature, 145; favors State compensation for legislature, 147; opposes ineligibility of members of first branch of legislature to offices, 151, 153; seconds motion for six years for Senators, 165; opposes seven years for Senators, 166; favors frequent elections, 168; thinks States have equal rights, 180; thinks Congress needs more power, 195; favors commitment of question of representation in Senate, 202; favors equal vote in Senate, 230; opposes ratio of representation, 223; on committee on representation, 226; opposes increase in representation, 229; would not shackle legislature, 231; favors numbers as basis of representation, 235; favors representation proposed, 239; thinks legislature should fix representation, 247; insists on equal vote in Senate, 254; thinks legislature will require quotas from States, 259; wishes powers of legislature defined, 264; thinks time for meeting of legislature ought to be fixed, 349; wishes members of legislature