SPLITS WITH PARTY OVER PROHIBITION

Col. Machin Renounces Allegiance to Conservatives, and is Amazed That the People Are So Uncomplaining in Face of Hearst Government's Drastic Regulation Interfering With Personal Liberty.

The legislature had a full sized, double action sensation at the night session, when the U.F.O. member for Manitoulin vindicated that party and its policy and Colonel Machin of Kenora, now engaged in Ottawa in connection with the military service act, renounced his "allegiance" to the Conservative party on account of the Hearst prohibition legislation.

Colonel Machin spoke thruout in vibrant tones, and was listened to with the closest attention by both sides of the houses. A pin could be heard to drop while he was speaking. uming the debate at 8 o'clock Dr. G. I. Musgrove, Niagara Falls, said the government intends some day or other to place the price of school
