Do Not Comply With Board's Orders - Teamsters Go Out On Strike-Sessions Open.

HAMILTON, June 11 .- (Special.)-This afternoon the grand jury brought in true bills against William Edmonston and Albert New, charged with asassaulting and robbing Thos. Maisey, and also against John Brady, a cabman. Henry Tush, who had been committed for assault, did not appear to answer the charge, and a warrant for his arrest was issued.

The hospital governors met this afternoon and made arrangements for the formal opening of the Queen Alexandra wing on June 2). The governors expressed disappointment because the board of health had not taken action on their application to have the consumption hospital located on the hospital grounds.

At the sessions this afternoon J. Mc-

The general sessions of the peace opened this afternoon by Judge Snider with 25 cases, 10 of which are criminal ones. The case against Frank H. Butler of London, who is charged with defrauding Meadows, Williams & Co. of this city on a stock transaction, was to have been taken up during the session, but owing to the absence of some witnesses it has been laid.

Other new features are the installation of a long-distance Bell Telephone service, and a new spur or "Y" provided by the Michigan Central Railroad along the western border of the field. By this means three regiments can simultaneously detrain.
