Toronto Op- era Honse, 8 p.m.	London, March 5.—Telegrams received here from Klerksdorp describing the attack upon and capture by the Boers, Feb. 24, at a point southwest of Klerksdorp, of 467 British soldiers, who were acting as convoy to an empty wagon train, show that Gen. Delarey laid his plans with consummate care and precise knowledge of the ground. The third Boer attack upon the convoy was delivered from various points and was most determined. By sheer recklessness they sought to ride down and overwhelm the British defence. The British guns shelled the charging Boers, but nothing stopped their onslaught, which was delivered with unusual impetus. The convoy of mules were subjected to a heavy fire and in many cases were deserted by the native drivers. They stampeded, put many of the defenders temporarily out of action and caused great confusion. For two hours the British held out. They then divided and were overwhelmed. A few minutes of confused fighting and all was over. The Boers galloped	 IS PLANS WITH CONSISTENT OF A STATE OF A S	re the machinery might on SUMMATI demerits of animals he the Canadians.
