Members of parliament are now to have forenoon sittings. They'll soon be doing a real day's work.

EXPLUEED:

Mr. Windham raised his hat and when he reached the can, he moved it out of the way, and felt so angry and humiliated over things in general that he got out of the neighborhood as soon as possible. He walked around for an hour, and then went back with a card in his hand, and was properly announced.

The old man was not a matchmaker, but he proceeded to meddle with the business. Whether his ward wanted to marry a man with red hair or black did not make any difference to him. She might marry a man of twenty-five or an old man of seventy, so far as he knew her mind. In his will he left a million dollars to be inherited in this way. If Mr. Earl Windham married Miss Rose Stevens within a year the money was to come to them as a bridal gift. If they did not marry, it was to go to Yale College. That was the up and down of it. The lawyer who drew the will vowed that it could not be broken.

The Modern Metal Bed

—THE BED FOR ALL TIME

Of all the articles that make up the modern home, the Metal Bed is the most durable and the least expensive.

Pianos lose their sweetness of tone; rugs wear thin; Chesterfields become uncomfortable; wooden beds warp, crack and shrink; but the Modern Metal Bed is the same strong, sturdy, handsome bed after a lifetime of use.

"IDEAL" METAL BEDS

are happy blends of strength and artistic beauty. They are light enough to be easily moved and taken apart, yet are so strong that no part can possibly work loose. They are the cleanest and most sanitary of all beds, and not affected by changes in climate, as all wooden beds must be.

The complete range of designs in "Ideal" Metal Beds-in four standard sizes—insures all tastes being suited.
