PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"THE GIRL FROM BRAZIL"

Tonight at the Alexandra Theatre will inaugurate a week of genuine happiness when the Messrs. Shubert present the gay and gorgeous Metropolitan musical comedy, "The Girl from Brazil." This gem of melody and mirth comes here in connection with all the panto and burlesque which characterized its brilliant run at the 44th Street Theatre, New York, where its tuneful music, superior dancing, excellent singing and general air of sprightliness received the unanimous endorsement of the press and public.

"H.M.S. PINAFORE."
Once again Torontonians will have the opportunity of witnessing a revival of Gilbert & Sullivan's popular comic opera, "H.M.S. Pinafore," which will be the attraction at the Alexandra Theatre, next week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

JOHN MASON IN "COMMON CLAY"

That remarkable success, "Common Clay," which has just completed a run of one solid year at the Republic Theatre, New York, and comes here in its run in Chicago, under the direction of A. H. Woods, is now announced for presentation at the Grand Opera House this week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

John Mason will be seen in his role of Judge Pilon, in which he added fame and art to the long list already scored by this talented artist in metropolitan centres. A co-star with him is Clara Joel, who will be seen as Ellen Neal, a poor little good girl.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT" COMING

"Charley's Aunt," one of the funniest farce comedies ever written, is being revived this season with a great cast at popular prices. It will be presented at the Grand Opera House all next week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

LOEW'S.

The Al Golem troupe of "oriental" marvels, with a company of twenty entertainers, will head the bill at Loew's this week, with the usual complete in a Roman travesty furnish laugh after laugh from start to finish. George Tabor and Monroe Green, singers, pianists and song writers, will bring some of their own melodies and popular songs. Gray and Klumker, who style themselves "Those Southern Bachelors," will offer songs, dances and fun. Clifford and Willis, Elmer and Capman, Duffy and Daisy and others will also appear on the bill. "Her Double Life," a five-act photo production, with Theda Bara in the leading role, will be an added feature.

SHEA'S.

For this week Shea's Theatre management offers an all-star bill headed by two acts, both of headline calibre. Blossom Seeley and George Whiting with Sadie Burt share stellar honors. Miss Seeley is perhaps vaudeville's greatest exponent of ragtime songs. Mr. Whiting and Miss Burt make their initial appearance at Shea's in "A Little Speculator." Artie Mehlinger has a new repertoire of character songs, while Miss Fong Dong Gue and Harry Haw are Chinese exponents of American songs, "Extra Matthews" in the comedy sketch "Prosperity." J. C. Booth and "Happy" Leander in the sharp sketch "Something to Talk About." Bert Hanson, Leon and the Adeline Sisters and feature film comedies complete an exceptionally good bill.

HIPPODROME.

Willard Mack, the clever "Triangle" star, will be featured at the Hippodrome this week in "The Conqueror," a stirring story of love and finance. "The Scoop" is an interesting play dealing with the efforts of a newspaperman to land an exclusive story, will headline the vaudeville bill. Deodato presents many mystifying acts of magic, while Lillian Fitzgerald has a host of new songs and stories. Eddie Hill has a novelty shadowgraph offering while Charles Kenrose, monologist, Harvey and "Keystone" comedy artists, complete the bill.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

The private view of the British exhibition of war trophies and relics, to which Major W. S. Dinwiddie and the officers of the 109th Regiment, Canadian Militia, had issued invitations took place on Saturday afternoon in the building formerly occupied by the Tyrrell Co., on King street, with the sure success of anything organized by the capable and popular men at the head of the enterprise. The rooms were most admirably decorated with flags and the exhibits were by far the most interesting yet seen in Toronto. General Logie made a short and telling speech at the opening, and an expert gave a most interesting explanation of the flying properties of a swift battle plane, and the Australian and New Zealand Recruiting Posters also were worth going to see. Mrs. W. S. Dinwiddie received, looking extremely well in a black taffeta and georgette cape gown with corsage bouquet of violets, and a black hat. Tea was dispensed from a scarlet and white tent at the back of the room between four and five o'clock. Among those who came in during the afternoon were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Lady Hendrie, Miss Hendrie, His Worship the Mayor and Miss Church, the Hon. T. W. and Mrs. Lucas, the lord bishop of Toronto, Sir Edmund and Lady Leveitt, Major and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. George, Hon. Justice Ferguson, Hon. Justice Macpherson, Hon. Justice J. K. Fiske, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chadwick, Mr. Frank Arnold, C.C. Col. Major and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Heintzman, Mr. and Mrs. Alan George, Hon. Justice Ferguson, Mr. Ford Robertson, and Mrs. C. J. H. and Mrs. Moss, Lieut.-Col. Henry Brock, Mr. A. W. Austin, Canon and Mrs. Plumptre, Hon. Justice and Mrs. Hodgins, the Messrs. Hodgins, Mr. Bishop, Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, Mr. H. V. F. Jones, Mr. F. Tolman, R. N. Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, Mr. W. J. Gage, Mr. Weston Brock, Captain and Mrs. Aylward, Mr. David Dunlop, Dr. J. M. "IDLE WIVES" AT STRAND.

Beyond question and beyond compare the photo-play sensation of the hour is "Idle Wives," which will be presented for the whole of this week at the Strand Theatre. This is the great photo-play which started and sustained New York. Its effect on Montreal was positively a revelation. In its daring and in its courage to tell the truth about vital things, as well as in its startling scene of false shame, it is a revelation.

REGENT.

Fannie Ward is the attraction at the Regent for today, Tuesday and Wednesday. This famous London emotional actress will be seen in her screen version of "The House of the Living," an adaptation of Albert Payson Terhune's popular novel of that name. The piece is an excellent vehicle for Miss Ward's best work. As an added attraction the Regent will show the first story of the Beatrice Fairfax series, "The Missing Watchman," Miss Grace Darling, who is starring at the Regent in person at the Regent this

MADISON.

It is a long time since a novel has created as much enthusiasm of a light nature as Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen," which sent the resorts crazy last summer. For this reason the pictureization of the story, with Jack Pickford and Louise Huff in the title roles, at the Madison Theatre should draw a record crowd.

WHY NOT FLORIDA FOR YOUR WINTER TOUR?

The attractions are unsurpassed, beautiful palm trees, warm sea bathing, golf, tarpon fishing, luxurious hotels for all pockets. Two nights only from Toronto. Winter tourist tickets now on sale. HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Brantford Civic Committee to Investigate Coal Situation.

Brantford, Dec. 3.—The first drastic step regarding the high cost of living will be taken by civic joint committee on Friday next, when the coal dealers of the city will be asked to produce statistics showing the cost of coal to them, overhead expenses and profits. Following this enquiry it will be determined whether the time is opportune for the establishment of a civic coal yard. Other municipal establishments for sale of natural products will be enquired into.

WANT SALARY INCREASES.

Galt, Dec. 3.—Because of the high cost of living the female teachers of the Galt Public Schools have petitioned the board for a general increase in salary of $50 each, over and above the increases provided in the salary schedule. The present board sent the request to the 1917 board for consideration.

BEET GROWERS MEET.

Kitchener, Dec. 2.—Beet growers in this county held a meeting here this afternoon and appointed a committee to meet a representative of the Dominion Sugar Company in regard to beet prices and arrangements were made for a meeting next Saturday.

BUILDING PERMITS INCREASE.

Chatham, Ont., Dec. 2.—The total amount of building permits issued during the month of November is $17,400, an increase of $100 over amount the corresponding month last year. The total for the first eleven months of the year is $225,700.
